ALREADY FEBRUARY...

It's our February issue, so we once again are celebrating Black History Month, showcasing the comics and graphic novels that feature black main characters, that were created by African-American creators, or which dramatize the black experience. As always, we have some great backlist and new titles being offered this month, and we have some suggested titles for you to check out on page 214.

Elsewhere, our Indie Edge interview profiles writer Al Madrigal, who you may know from his time on The Daily Show with John Stewart. He's currently writing a bunch of TV pilots, but more importantly, a new Latinx superhero series for AWA titled, Primos. It looks "primo" and I'll be checking it out when it hits my local comics shop.

Finally, with FREE COMIC BOOK DAY 2022 once again scheduled for the first Saturday in May, the 7th, we're happy to reveal to you this year's artist for our FCBD Commemorative T-Shirt and Poster. Just turn to page 37 for the reveal!

That's all I've got for this month. Thanks for picking up this issue and joining us for another month of cool comics and mighty merchandise! Until next month!

7 Comics Sell for Over $1M in 2021; Record Price Set Twice

In 2021, seven different comic books sold for over $1 million. And not just seven books, five different titles in seven different grades. If that wasn't impressive enough, the world record for most valuable comic book was set twice in 2021.

First up was Batman #1, noted for the debuts of the Joker and Catwoman, and for being the Dark Knight's first titular comic. A high grade CGC 9.4 copy sold for $2.22 million at Heritage Auctions in January. This was the first time a copy of Batman #1 sold for over $1 million.

Batman #1 grabbed another seven-figure sale when ComicConnect sold a CGC 8.0 copy for $1.2 million in April 2021.

Also in April 2021, ComicConnect brokered a deal for Action Comics #1 CGC 8.5 featuring Superman's first appearance for $3.25 million. That sale toppled the record for highest price paid for a comic, which had stood for over six years. The previous record was also set by Action Comics #1, a CGC 9.0 copy, that realized $3.2 million in an eBay auction in August 2014.

Proving the marketability of Batman's introduction, a mid-grade CGC 5.0 copy of Detective Comics #27 hammered for $1.125 million at Heritage in June 2021. This was the second copy to sell for over $1 million, following 11 years after a CGC 8.0 copy brought $1.075 million at Heritage in 2010.

A high grade CGC 9.6 of Spider-Man's first appearance in Amazing Fantasy #15 set a new record for highest price paid for a comic when it cleared $3.6 million at Heritage in September. It trounced the previous top sale for this issue, which was also a CGC 9.6 that hit $1.1 million in 2011.

The final two books to fetch $1 million in 2021 were both achieved by ComicConnect. First, an Action Comics #1 in the lower grade of CGC 3.0 achieved $1.6 million. A few days later, they sold a Superman #1 CGC 7.0 for $2.6 million – the first time the Man of Steel's self-titled book surpassed $1 million.

This was the first time that seven books crossed the $1 million mark in a single year. When Heritage's November 2020 sale of Detective Comics #27 CGC 7.0 for $1.5 million is added in, 8 of the 16 highest prices paid for comics were achieved in the last year.

Please tell us a bit about yourself!

Let's see, I started as a standup comedian in San Francisco, California with zero interest in doing anything else, but then quickly found myself acting, writing, and producing to the point where now almost all I do is write for television. Which I'm great with! Being a road standup comedian is really fun to do for a while, but I became horrible at managing drunks. I would much rather spend time with my family... who heckle me slightly less. Oh yeah, and I'm also the writer of AWA's Latinx superhero series, PRIMOS!

What are your favorite projects you've contributed to over the past decade?

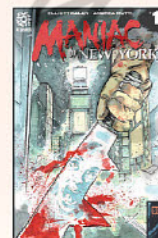

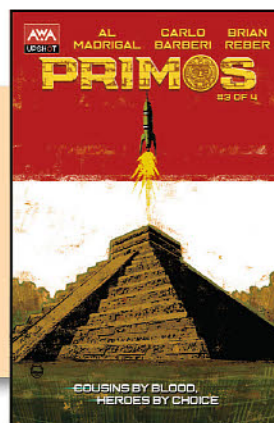

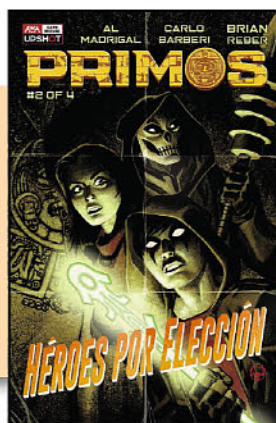

I feel very fortunate to have a weird eclectic resume and a variety of creative interests. While at The Daily Show with Jon Stewart, I was able to work with some extremely talented people and actually make a difference. Acting is also something I thoroughly enjoy, especially after making the jump to movies in Night School, The Way Back, and the upcoming Morbius. But the thing that has been the most satisfying is watching All Things Comedy, the small loose collection of podcasts I banded together in 2012, grow into the world's number one comedy podcast network.

What are you currently working on?

In addition to my work on AWA's Primos, I'm writing an ABC TV series, Guerillas, and a half-hour comedy for FOX called Accidentes, waiting on word whether those will be made into TV pilots while developing several other projects with CBS Studios. Most importantly, I'm working on my health after really letting myself go during Covid.

What fun titles are you reading?

Maniac of New York (Aftershock), from my friend Elliott Kalan from The Daily Show with Jon Stewart. It's a great commentary on how society can adapt to horrible situations and with the way we've responded to the Covid pandemic, it's more relevant than ever. Something is Killing the Children, by James Tynion IV (BOOM! Studios). Amazing characters from one of the best in business. Love all the intrigue and potential for future stories. And Once & Future by Kieron Gillen (BOOM! Studios). Old lady-monster hunter. USER'S GUIDE

There's a lot of awesome comics and products to look through in PREVIEWS. "A lot" might be a bit of an understatement, as each month's catalog is filled with hundreds and hundreds of pages of upcoming comics and related merchandise! It can be easy to accidentally overlook a new series you've been dying to read or a figure you've been pining to add to your shelf when there's so many things to browse. That's why we've put together this guide to help you learn how to use PREVIEWS like a pro to order the awesome titles and products you want!

WHAT EXACTLY IS PREVIEWS?

PREVIEWS is part catalog, part magazine (we call it a Mag-a-log!) of monthly listings of all of the upcoming comic titles and related products from your favorite publishers and manufacturers in one convenient place. And don't worry—PREVIEWS is organized by publisher and product type (and color-coded to boot!), to make it easy to find and flip to the section or items you're looking for. Each item listing has the information you need, such as format, size, page count, price, release date, stock or item code, and descriptive text, and nearly every listing is accompanied by artwork or images.

The most important aspect of PREVIEWS to remember is that items solicited in the catalog are anticipated to ship 2-3 months later (or more). For example, if you found a comic you wanted in the May issue of PREVIEWS, you can expect to see it turn up in your local comic shop in July. The catalog can be a great resource for figuring out where your favorite comic series is going, or for discovering new ones that you'll want to add to your library—not to mention all the other awesome products!

HOW DO I ORDER FROM PREVIEWS?

When you've picked out all of the items you want, you can fill out the Short Order Form included in your copy of PREVIEWS and submit it to your local comic shop. You can also ask your friendly neighborhood retailer about obtaining a Customer Order Form, a booklet that contains a complete listing of all the items made available for that month. These forms make pre-ordering your comics and products a breeze and can help your local comic shop decide what to stock in the store for other customers, too! Be sure to also ask

PREVIEWS LEGEND

Throughout this issue of PREVIEWS, you'll find a variety of symbols and terms that will help you in selecting items from this catalog. Here's what they mean:

Gems of the Month

The top offerings, as chosen by our Premier Publishers—these are the best bets in comics whether it's the next high-profile project or a new ongoing series.

Featured Items

In other sections, you'll find Featured Items, the top monthly products offered in their categories.

SPOTLIGHT ON

Spotlight On

These items are not to be missed; highlighted to get your attention.

PREVIEWS Exclusive

These are items available only through PREVIEWS! When you see this icon, you'll know you're ordering a limited item found nowhere else!

Featured Theme

Each month, PREVIEWS features a different theme to highlight certain titles and products. Look for that month's themed icon to find these selected items.

Indie Edge

The cutting edge of independent comics and creators, look for this icon on selected titles throughout the Comics & Graphic Novels section.

ESSENTIAL ITEM

Essential Item

These are best-selling backlist items that are available for immediate order from your local comic shop. If your shop doesn't have a copy in store, they can order one for you and have in less than a week!

Offered Again (O/A)

These items have been previously offered before in PREVIEWS and are being made available again.

PI or Please Inquire

Your store will set the price for all "Please Inquire" items — check with your retailer for the price on these items.

MSRP or SRP

Manufacturer's/Suggested Retail Price. These designations provide suggested pricing information for a majority of items not carrying a retail price. Actual prices may vary depending upon market conditions. Please check with your retailer.

Caution (CAUT: #-#-#)

Cautions listed at the end of catalog descriptions indicate an item that may ship late or otherwise diverge from its PREVIEWS description. These codes are separated into three categories:

International Rights (I-Rights) — the item is restricted into what countries it can be sold.

0 = No International Rights restriction;

1 = International Rights are restricted.

Content Changes — the content may change after solicitation.

0 = No Content disclaimer;

1 = Content disclaimer enforced.

Ship Date Changes — the final shipping date may differ or change from the scheduled ship date.

0 = Item is expected to ship within 30 days of the EST SHIP DATE.

1 = Item is expected to ship within 60 days of the EST SHIP DATE.

2 = Item is expected to ship within 90 days of the EST SHIP DATE.

PREVIEWS Abbreviations

SC = Softcover, HC = Hardcover, TP = Trade Paperback, MMPB = Mass Market Paperback, FC = Full-Color, b&w = Black & White; PC = Partial Color

A Note to Toy Collectors:

Your retailer cannot guarantee receiving specific items — such as action figures — when they must be ordered in case or "assortment" quantities. Please be aware of this when ordering action figures and other items designated as cases or assortments.

USER'S GUIDE

ORDERING GUIDE

Ordering from your local comic shop is easy!

There are 3 simple ways to order:

Use the Short Order Form.

Fill in with the items you'd like to order from this issue.

Ask for the companion Customer Order Form.

We offer a companion order form that features a complete listing of every product offered in this catalog. Fill out what you want to order and hand in to your comic shop to place an order!

Ask your retailer about their "Pull & Hold" service.

Many retailers offer a "pull & hold" or subscription service where you can order your monthly comics and merchandise easily. They'll hold your orders for you and you can pick up your items when it's convenient for you! Be sure to ask your retailer to give you a copy of PREVIEWS, Marvel PREVIEWS, and the PREVIEWS Customer Order Form each month so you can place your orders easily! February 2022 | Edited By: Allyn Gibson | editor@PREVIEWSworld.com

IMAGE COMICS CELEBRATES ITS 30TH-ANNIVERSARY IN 2022 WITH THE IMAGE! ANTHOLOGY

Seven of the best-selling and most popular comic creators of the early 90s — Rob Liefeld, Todd McFarlane, Jim Lee, Marc Silvestri, Eric Larsen, Jim Valentino, and Whilce Portacio — took a stand for creative rights and freedom by forming Image Comics in February 1992. Thirty years later, Image Comics is a force in the comics industry, publishing far more than super-hero comics from comics' biggest names and new stars. In 2022 Image Comics celebrates its anniversary and its rich diversity of creators and concepts with the twelve issue IMAGE! anthology. With short stories and serials, new concepts and characters, and best-selling creators, IMAGE! encapsulates the freedom that has been the hallmark of Image Comics for the last thirty years.

Happy anniversary, Image Comics! Here's to another thirty years!

REDISCOVER THE CHARMING FACE OF EVIL IN MATT WAGNER'S GRENDEL

Another character approaching its fortieth anniversary, Matt Wagner's Grendel, returns to print this summer as Dark Horse Comics reprints the Grendel Omnibus Volume 1: Hunter Rose, now in a standard comics size. The tales in this volume feature Hunter Rose, a literary genius and playboy who also terrorizes Manhattan's underworld as the mysterious masked man known as Grendel. Soon to be a Netflix series, Dark Horse's Grendel Omnibus is a magnificent introduction to the captivating character.

IDW CELEBRATES 40 YEARS OF THE ROCKETEER WITH A NEW SERIES

In the spring of 1982, Dave Stevens' 1940s flying hero The Rocketeer made his debut in the pages of Pacific Comics' Starslayer. Forty years later, IDW Publishing celebrates the character and beloved artist Stevens with The Rocketeer: The Great Race, a four-issue miniseries from Stephen Mooney that sees stunt pilot Cliff Secord, the Rocketeer, return to his first love – flying airplanes – for a race from California to France on the eve of World War II. But, as ever, danger lurks in the shadows for The Rocketeer and his girlfriend Betty!

A NEW SLAYER TAKES UP THE STAKE IN BOOM!'S NEW BUFFYVERSE SERIES

Overwhelmed by the physical and mental trauma of hunting vampires and the horrors of Sunnydale, Buffy Summers is close to the breaking point – and a desperate attempt by Giles and Willow to save her backfires, leaving Buffy an amnesiac unaware of her past or her mission as the Slayer. In Sarah Gailey and Irene Flores' new BOOM! Studios series, The Vampire Slayer, a new Slayer must be found to protect Sunnydale while Buffy's friends attempt to help Buffy remember who and what she is!

COMICS LEGEND DAN SLOTT ENTERS THE TARDIS FOR TITAN'S DOCTOR WHO SPECIAL

Dan Slott, the best-selling writer of acclaimed runs on Marvel Comics' Amazing Spider-Man and Silver Surfer, is also one of comics' biggest Doctor Who fans, and in 2022 he steps aboard the TARDIS for the first of three annual specials in Titan's Doctor Who Special 2022! Joined by artists Christopher Jones and Matthew Dow Smith and with a cover by Adam Hughes, Slott shines a spotlight on the tenth Doctor and Martha Jones. Allons-y!

DAN SLOTT

Hey Dan! Super great to have you here! Tell us a little bit about yourself, what have you worked on before?

D: Great to be here. Most people know me from my 10+ year run on Amazing Spider-Man, but I've worked on titles like She-Hulk, Mighty Avengers, Batman Adventures, and a shamelessly Doctor Who-like run of Silver Surfer. Right now I'm Marvel's current writer for Fantastic Four.

Wow, you have been busy! So tell us, how were you introduced to the real Doctor Who, was there a particular era or Doctor that enticed you to the Whoniverse?

D: I got to see Doctor Who whenever my family spent summers at my Grandma's. It was showing on PBS in her area. I got to see a lot of Seasons 12, 13, and 14 with the Fourth Doctor, Sarah Jane, Harry, and then Leela. In 1980, my family moved to London. I got to watch every single episode of The Leisure Hive series, the second they aired. And when I should've been doing my homework, I was reading all of the Target novelizations of all the Doctor Who adventures I'd missed all the way back to An Unearthly Child.

So it's been a part of your life for a long time then. How did you feel when you found out you were going to be the writer for this awesome special edition?

D: Ecstatic! Anyone who knows me knows that Doctor Who is my favorite TV show of all-time. For me, along with Spider-Man, Batman, and Indiana Jones, the Doctor is one of my favorite characters in all of fiction.

What were the main things you want to bring to the Whoniverse?

D: Honestly? Everything! I'm treating this like this is my one and only shot to write for the Doctor. Everything, including the kitchen sink, is going into this one! Time travel, space travel, monsters from both the new and classic eras, and all-new baddies as well! This special will really be a tribute to the RTD era, as we'll see a lead feature with the Tenth Doctor and Martha, and a back-up tale with the Ninth Doctor and Rose.

And how would you describe your writing style?

D: Geeky, silly, and with a healthy amount of schmaltz. Google it.

On your social media there are lots of pictures of you with many of the Doctors. How did you pull that off? And are there any Doctors you haven't met yet?

D: It's a sure fire way to get me to attend a comic con. Whenever I'm invited to a show I ask if there'll be anyone from Doctor Who there and if so, can I please meet them? One of the nice surprises has been how lovely everyone is in person. All the actors, cast, and crew are just the nicest people and the best possible ambassadors for the show. For now, the only Doctors I haven't been lucky enough to meet yet are Sylvester McCoy, Paul McGann, and Jo Martin. So fingers crossed!

Lastly, who or what is your favourite Doctor Who villain?

D: The BBC. Out of everyone the Doctor's faced, they're the only ones powerful enough to hold him in limbo for 7 years-- and then 9 more! Not even Davros could pull that off! That said, thanks for bringing the Doctor back, BBC! Love ya!

TYLER KIRKHAM

Like many comic book creators, Tyler Kirkham began as a fan. Reading Image Comics as a teenager in the 90s, Kirkham honed his craft as an artist, making small sales to local newspapers in Utah, showing off his portfolio, and eventually landing his first professional comics work on The Gift. Kirkham's talent attracted the attention of Marc Silvestri and Top Cow Studios, where he worked on Strykeforce, Witchblade, and Tomb Raider. Kirkham moved on to projects like Ultimate Fantastic Four, X-Men: Phoenix Warsong, New Avengers/Transformers, Green Lantern Corps, Deathstroke, as well as video game concept artwork and covers. Kirkham brings dynamic energy and a fan's passion to his artwork, and both qualities come through with his commemorative art piece for Free Comic Book Day 2022!

BRIAN POSEHN, GERRY DUGGAN & SCOTT KOBLISH reform Voltron (metaphorically only) from their days on Deadpool (also not appearing) to tell a true story and lost chapter from our nation's sad and failed war on drugs.

The year is 1985. The First Lady decides to crush Northern California cannabis farmers and deploys the biggest tool in the armed forces: Scotch McTiernan (collectible first of many hilarious appearances). "If it weeds...we can kill it." Scotch puts his boots on the ground in Humboldt and does what he does best—but what happens when he gets high for the first time?

This one-shot has it all: laughs, tears, heart, action—plus, an activity page! A portion of the proceeds from this comic will be donated to organizations dedicated to helping casualties of America's immoral drug war.

Celebrate 4/20 with a perfect new release that's sure to light up fans of MARIJUANAMAN.

Mind-bending sci-fi and Cold War thriller collide in this 6-issue series by the bestselling, Eisner-winning creative team behind GIDEON FALLS! In 1957, the USSR made history by launching a dog named Laika into Earth's orbit. Two years later, the USA responded with two monkeys, Able and Baker. These animals never returned. But unbeknownst to everyone, they did not die in orbit...they were taken. And now they are coming home.

Select praise for PRIMORDIAL:

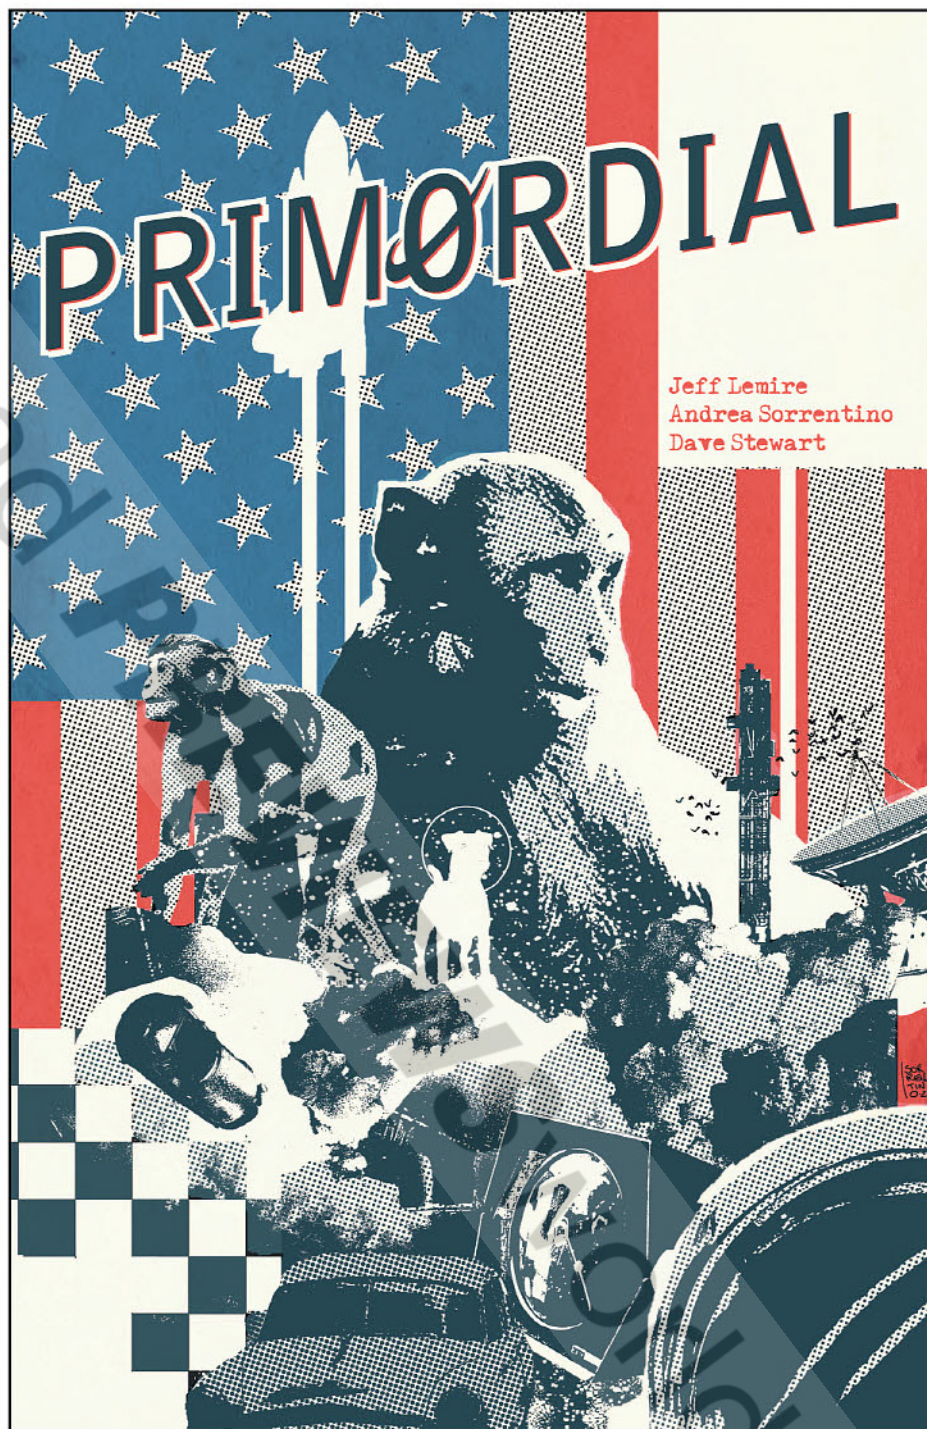

"...Ambitious and innovative comics storytelling..." — ComicBook.com

"Has plenty to offer to fans of American history, science fiction, and good storytelling." — Comic Book Resources

"All in all, sci-fi fans, LEMIRE fans, SORRENTINO fans, Image fans, this is a must buy." — Black Nerd Problems

"A classic Cold War thriller in the making. But it's also far more ambitious than that, with a sci-fi storyline at its heart and visuals evoking 2001: A Space Odyssey... Part John le Carré and another part Arthur C. Clarke." — Comicon.com

"For a creative team this brilliant, it really means something to say that they are at the top of their game. But sure enough...some of their best work!" — Monkeys Fighting Robots

Cleveland. 1935. Eliot Ness, fresh from his legendary Chicago triumph over Al Capone and associates, set his sights on Cleveland. He went on a crusade that matched, and sometimes even surpassed, his past accomplishments. But dismembered body parts started washing up in a concentrated area of Lake Erie Sound. Headless torsos that left no clues to their identity or reason for death. Eliot Ness and his colorful gang of The Unknowns chased this killer through the underbelly of Cleveland for years. As far as the public was concerned, he was never captured. But what really happened is even more shocking.

On Milliken's twelfth birthday, their father takes the two girls on an overnight skate down the trench—a coming-of-age ritual to teach them how to fish the frozen river, how to hunt the wild Trenchdogs that wander its frigid banks, and how to give proper thanks to their frozen Gods—the Colden Ones. It's the trip of a lifetime until the girls push beyond the borders of their humble land and awaken the Trench's deadly defender . . . the Snowman! What follows next is an action-packed story of survival, loss and redemption.

Collects issues #5–#10 of Snow Angels from the ComiXology original digital series in print for the first time.

TP, 7" x 10"

A kung-fu epic from James Stokoe, the creator behind Orc Stain and Aliens: Dead Orbit!

Spurred on by her master's dying words, the adopted warrior "Orphan Mo" seeks to find and kill five former disciples who now threaten the land with corruption from their demonic powers. Part Five Deadly Venoms and part surreal grindhouse, James Stokoe brings his knack for ultra-detailed fantasy imagery and over-the-top violence to this classic tale of revenge.

Collects the four-issue miniseries.

"Orphan and the Five Beasts can take its well-earned place among the best of the martial arts epics. A riveting story with fantastic art."

—The Brazen Bull

Daisy fights alone against Creation itself. Failure will imprison her in the Creator's hellish realm, and the world will serve out eternity on its knees, punished for the chaos and despair endowed by the maker and tortured for the light of hope that burns within. Armored with nothing but the language of Creation—and the truth—only Daisy can break the shackles of the world's bondage, unwrite what is written, and write a better tomorrow.

ZITZ

Zitz is the leader of the Battletoads, a fact he's keen to remind everyone in earshot about whenever the opportunity presents itself. Although Zitz is smart, resourceful, and adept with the most obscure alien technology, his insecurity and need to control the situation cause friction when the Toads ally with the Dark Queen, whom Zitz perceives as a threat to his authority.

Though he's far from skinny and fairly similar to Rash in stature, Zitz is the most agile of the Battletoads. The early sketches below explore an even scrawnier physique for the character.

CELEBRATING THE 40TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE VERY FIRST APPEARANCE OF THE ROCKETEER.

Ace stunt pilot Cliff Secord has returned from his New York Adventure to a West Coast steeped in paranoia over the looming war in Europe. Having finally had enough of his near-death scrapes as the high-flying Rocketeer, the only thing in Cliff's crosshairs is The Great Race: a prestigious, winner-take-all air race that runs from California to France! Maybe it's finally time to smarten up and fly straight . . . by taking his best girl Betty to Paris! But other parties want to win the race for their own nefarious ends, and Cliff will need to decide which prize is truly the most valuable of all.

BONUS FEATURE: Each issue will contain an oral history—featuring Dave Stevens's friends, family and fellow artists—all culled together by Kelvin Mao, longtime friend of Stevens's and the director of the forthcoming documentary on the beloved artist!

As the nation is torn apart, someone is murdering all the patriotic heroes.

A mysterious amnesiac awakens in a sealed underground base, naked and abandoned. This John Doe emerges to the year 2052, where the entire Project Superpowers Universe has been turned on its head.

The United States is no more, ravaged by environmental disaster, and fragmented into warring regions. The Black Terror is now many — revolutionaries trying to save the republic. But who IS John Doe? Why can't he remember anything? And does his presence in this brave new world bring its salvation...or its doom?

Beginning a new epic by Ron Marz (Silver Surfer) and Andy Lanning, co-writers of DC's Endless Winter!

RON MARZ & ANDY LANNING TALK THE NEXT BIG PROJECT SUPERPOWERS SAGA!

Ron and Andy, the Project Superpowers characters have been through all manner of turmoil. Whether it goes back to their Golden Age WWII roots, their modern adventures, or now you guys are taking them thirty years in the future. What's your elevator pitch for fans on this exciting new chapter?

Marz: The world of our story is in rough shape. The United States has literally fractured into regional powers, some of them very much at odds with each other. Into that landscape we introduce a literal John Doe, a character who wakes up having no idea who he is, or how he got here. We follow his journey through this shattered America, as he tries to discover his own identity, and the true identity of America itself.

Lanning: For anyone who likes a good old-fashioned tale of classic Golden Age heroes cast into a dark dystopian future world where the country has literally fallen apart around them and malevolent forces have risen to take control of the divided states with a main character who's got amnesia and must undertake a perilous journey across the dangerous, fractured landscape... then this one's for you!

You two are no strangers to apocalyptic team-up adventures, following the rollercoaster ride of DC's big crossover Endless Winter. What kind of cataclysmic environment are our heroes facing in Fractured States?

Marz: Environmental collapse, climate crisis, a pandemic ... you name it, we've got it!

Lanning: What Ron said! We just looked around at what we're facing in the world today, took it up a notch or two and we had a very believable apocalyptic landscape to play with. Which, now I think about it, is pretty bloody scary!

There are countless characters under the Project Superpowers umbrella. Which ones should fans expect this series to focus on the most?

Marz: Our main character is ... well, we can't tell you, that would ruin the surprise. We'll be getting glimpses of most of the Project Superpowers stalwarts, especially the patriotic heroes. We also show a very different version of Black Terror, which has grown from a singular character into an entire guerilla group. Of course, that does lead to the question of where the original Black Terror might be...

Lanning: Because the story focuses on the chaos that the United States has fallen into, the patriotic heroes, like The Flag, Man of War, etc feature. But we show other Project Superpowers mainstays too and hint at their fates in this sinister future, but it would be giving away the surprises if we tell more!

It seems that this arc and characters are reflecting certain real world narratives and realities right now, as much good genre fiction often does. What inspired you guys to tap into some of those influences for this series?

Marz: When we were digging into the previous Project Superpowers material to see what kind of story fodder we could find, one of the things we noticed was the plethora of patriotic characters. Obviously, that makes complete sense, as many of them date to the 1940s, when America was fighting real-world fascism. That seemed like a viable avenue to explore, since America is dealing with its own fascist impulses right now. It allows us to dig into larger themes like the American dream, and what it means to be American. As you said, it's all presented in the guise of a superhero story, but we wanted to make sure we had underpinnings of some meaty stuff in there.

Lanning: Against the backdrop of the divided nation that Ron explains, we also wanted to use current world issues facing us today as springboards into a suitably dramatic and compelling futurescape: the impact of environmental damage, climate change, global pandemics, political division and a state of fearful paranoia are all great themes to tell a high adventure against as they give our heroes overwhelming obstacles to overcome. By creating such a dark and foreboding world for them to struggle against, it makes their heroism and resilience that much brighter in comparison. Because most of these Golden Age heroes were created during the war against the backdrop of the Nazis marauding across Europe and the Axis threat to the world, they work best when set against a vast scale that's almost operatic in scope. We've attempted to put them into a world where they must draw upon all their powers and heroism to win out.

For fans that may be interested, how would you two describe your collaboration as co-writers? And how has it been working with the rest of the team, including artist Emilio Utrera?

Marz: I think Andy and I have very much the same story sense, so it's a pretty seamless collaborative process. We kick around story ideas, pass notes back and forth, and then usually Andy takes a first pass at the plot, I kick in some notes, and then I'll usually take the first dialogue pass, get notes from Andy, and then finalize the lettering script. We always end up with a story that's very much both of us. Emilio has been a real revelation, as we had not worked together before. He's doing very dynamic work, but the storytelling always comes first.

Lanning: I think Ron has summarized the nuts and bolts well but that sort of division of labour only happens after an intense and thorough planning session. This consists of Ron and I hopping on a Skype call. After an hour or so of comparing new comics, graphic novels and art books and catching up on the latest TV shows or movies we've seen, then picking over the latest things that have outraged or delighted us in the newsfeeds or on Twitter, and finally setting the world to rights before sharing a new recipe for a curry or cocktail we will find... we have about 5 minutes to figure out an idea for the latest issue and then things REALLY get started!

Emilio is a star in the making, he has great narrative chops and is producing pages like a machine! And, as he settles into the story, he's getting better with every page, which is always awesome to see as a writer as you become more comfortable throwing wilder and more ambitious elements into the story knowing he will knock them out the park!

JOHN CARTER'S CREATORS MERGE MINDS AS THEY DEPICT THE CLASH OF EARTH AND MARS

Chuck and George, what are your guys' connections toward the mythos of Barsoom, John Carter and Dejah Thoris? What draws you to this world and characters?

Brown: I've always been a huge fan of sci-fi and adventure. Like many of us, as a kid I was obsessed with Mars and the other planets in our solar system. Barsoom has such amazing characters and backstories. So it's a huge opportunity for George and I to play in this world.

Kambadais: I remember reading the John Carter books as a kid. They were difficult to come by here in Greece. I found these really old comic books in a second hand bookstore during summer holidays one year and I spent my whole vacation reading them and I fell in love with the universe. The whole retro-futuristic aesthetic is something I find very appealing. The idea of a world that is, at the same time, so distant yet so familiar is very exciting to me.

John Carter is very much a character that feels connected to his early 20th century creation, as well as his Civil War era in-story origins. Yet the world of Barsoom created by Edgar Rice Burroughs created a third signature environment. You're now bringing him forward in time closer to when the character was created. What makes the character fun to pull into other eras and environments?

Brown: It's going to be so fun to really explore John Carter's past accomplishments and mistakes. We want to tell a great story and it will be somewhat of a man out of his element and time. Barsoom has a lot of strange magic and technology that isn't even fully understood by the characters. So these characters can and will be placed in some bizarre environment because of this magic.

In this story, Earth and Mars are both being affected by a mysterious asteroid. What kind of chaos is set to ensue as these two vastly different worlds undergo this chaos?

Brown: This will be unlike any John Carter story you've read. Let's just say Barsoom will not be the only strange planet John will encounter. John Carter and our villain will both be fish out of water. Two opposing forces trying to survive and adapt in strange worlds with dangerous aliens and other creatures.

George, countless talented artists have depicted the world and characters of Barsoom before, in comics, book covers, and even on film. How are you approaching this series and are you bringing in any interesting influences to your art style or designs?

Kambadais: I really have some big shoes to fill. Many great artists have worked on John Carter before me. It's very important to me to try and approach this story in a way that the readers find familiar but at the same time is unique and fitting to this particular story. My main influences will be from animated movies and superhero comic books since I'll be trying to bring a lot of energy to my pages.

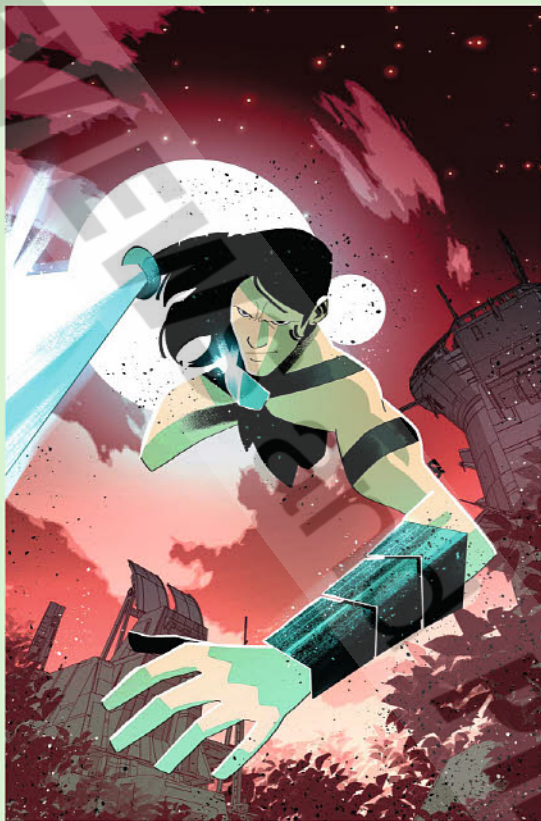

Chuck, many fans will be familiar with your work via Bitter Root or Black Manta, both of which artfully weave in real world concerns and commentary. How can we expect to see some of that flavor finds its way to your addition to the saga of Barsoom?

Brown: John Carter won't be too far removed from the events of the Civil War. Of course, I can't address the Civil War without addressing slavery. These books were written in the early 1900s. A time when some views and ideas would be unacceptable today. I'm not going to gloss over or ignore any of those influences.

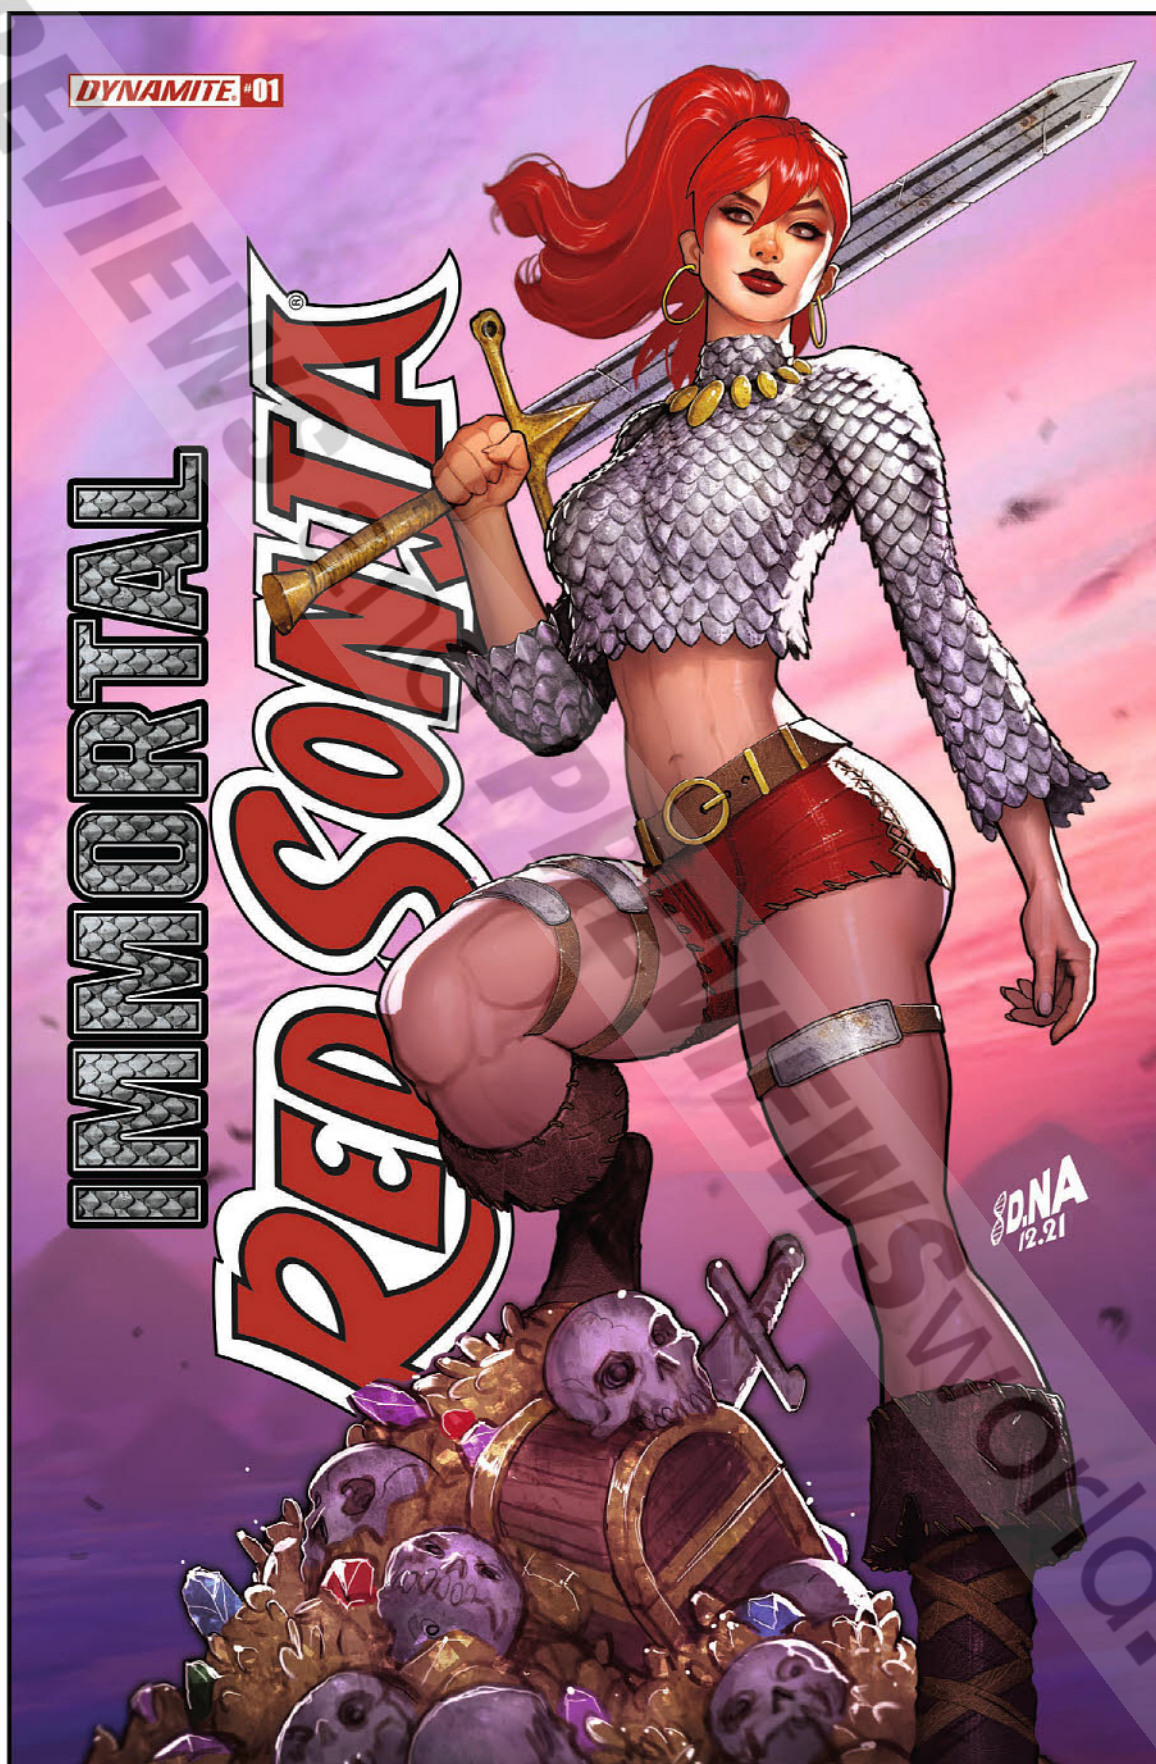

I also enjoy diving deep into the relationships of characters. I plan on putting John and Dejah's love to the test. With all my work, expect lots of action, explosions, and all the profanity that Dynamite will let me get away with!

RED SONJA & THE KNIGHTS OF THE ROUND..?

ABNETT & MIRACOLO INTRODUCE THEIR NEW FABLE

Dan, you're no stranger to writing about the legends of King Arthur Pendragon, going back to your work on Knights of Pendragon for Marvel. What's it like to bring Red Sonja into this set of legends?

Abnett: I think it's great, and it certainly appeals to me. As you say, I have form in that area :) More than anything, I think it's a chance to showcase Sonja in a slightly different world, even though it's still one of high fantasy and utterly appropriate to her. This is a new quest for her, a new set of adventures, taking her on an odyssey through dark age myths and legends (and not just Arthurian ones). So it moves her away from her traditional Hyborian lands, into a new realm where she can encounter things that might not have fit comfortably into her original setting. It's a great chance to showcase her in a fantasy world in a way we've never seen in a Red Sonja book before.

What pieces of the Arthurian mythos and major characters can readers expect to see interacting — or fighting — with Sonja in this series?

Abnett: All sorts of things! And not just Arthurian myths, either. It's worth saying that this isn't just an arbitrary shift - just taking her and dumping her in a different fantasy realm. The shift is all part of the metastory: she's been magically sent into these new lands to perform a quest, and that ties very much into Arthurian lore, but she'll meet many other elements of folklore on the way. This is not her taking part in a retelling of the classic Round Table story - this is her entering the world of Arthur in the aftermath of the classic tale of Arthur and his knights, and exploring that world. And we're giving it a very cool, authentic and realistic edge too. Forget the glossy Hollywood version, this is a grim and savage vision of what it would have been like if it had really happened.

One of the characters we'll get to see a lot of is the fabled Green Knight. Depictions of this mysterious character seem to be in the zeitgeist right now, such as a major acclaimed film this year. For those less familiar, how would you describe the Green Knight, and what makes him so intriguing?

Abnett: The Green Knight of myth has many aspects, but he's often seen as a figure deeply connected with the dark and primordial side of nature. He is one of the key spirits of the ancient woodlands, and you do NOT want to get on the wrong side of him. He's also got a big secret that we'll unfold as we go along.

At its core, this series — previous working title "Red Sonja: Chainmail" — is calling back to the Hyrkanian heroine's original appearance from Conan the Barbarian #23 as drawn by Barry Windsor — Smith, prior to her "chainmail bikini" look that is seen in most stories. What is it about this character that makes it fun to try on different looks across different tales? And for Alessandro, how fun is that from the artist perspective?

Abnett: The chainmail shirt, inspired by that classic story, is the magical artefact at the heart of this saga. It's a great call back to those earlier stories, and it defines her look for this particular book. This is the Immortal Red Sonja, warrior of myth and legend entering a haunted wilderness and leaving her familiar homelands behind. And Alessandro's doing a fantastic job of realising this new world.

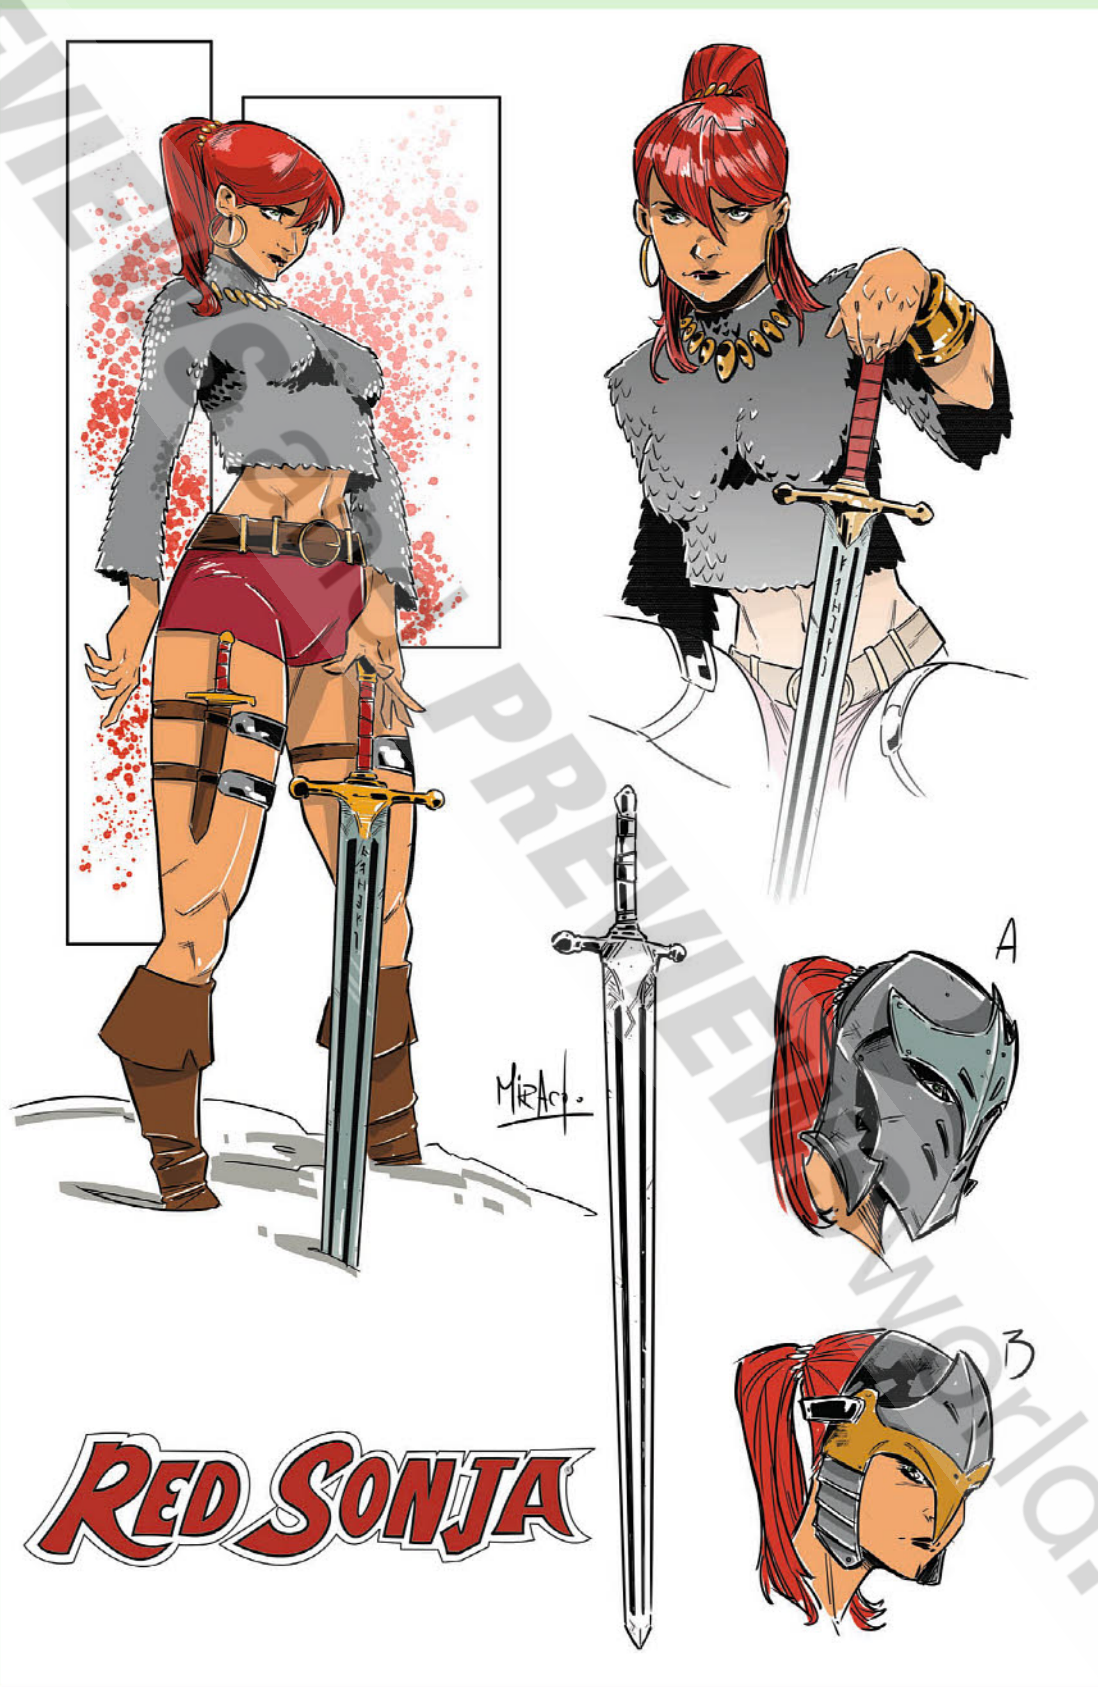

Miracolo: CIAOOO! I love Barry Windsor — Smith and for me this opportunity is really fantastic. I enjoy being able to create my own twist on the concept and following in the footsteps of so many legends. My hope is to not blight the She — Devil for her fans. Haha.

Alessandro, can you describe your artistic approach to this series? How are you attempting to meld the aesthetics of Red Sonja's Hyborian Age alongside the more traditionally known European medieval high fantasy?

Miracolo: Great question. The Hyborian age is very vast with so many diverse aesthetics — wastelands, mysterious cities, sorcerer kings, barbarians, etc. Luckily I'm a fan of the sword and sorcery genre, but talking to Dan and his idea of bringing Red Sonja into medieval fantasy, it's fantastic. I love those tales combining two fantastic worlds — it's really stimulating. I am watching films and reading stories that can give me ideas for my art.

Aiyana is a Native American girl living with her grandmother in Colorado where she often finds herself butting heads with her grandmother's traditional teachings and cultural stories. One day during a class field trip to the cliff dwellings of Mesa Verde, Aiyana steps away from her friends to take a quick selfie, unaware of a storm brewing that's creating havoc across the terrain as she is more interested in attracting new followers than the historical significance or the change in the weather. When she finally looks away from her phone, she realizes she's entirely alone amongst the stones and bricks, and the world around her is a very different place now . . . She's been transported into the Spirit World, parallel to her own, both hidden and blind to the world she came from. Luckily for Aiyana, she soon meets a friendly face in the Raven, who pledges his support to help get her home, and the two set off to seek a renowned, mystical entity who can allegedly return her to the human world.

Dynamite's first ever comic book was over 15 years ago and we kicked things off with Army of Darkness. Now to celebrate that continued legacy, reminisce with the diehards, and introduce a new generation to these classic stories, we are reprinting one of the most popular tales of Ash Williams! Taking place right after the first two arcs, writer James Kuhoric and artist Sanford Greene (Bitter Root, Power Man & Iron Fist) collide the horror comedy classic with another cult classic antihero from the mind of HP Lovecraft! For more on the adventures of Ash, readers can check out the affordable paperback omnibus volumes.

RED SONJA 45TH ANNIVERSARY FRANK THORNE STATUE BLACK & WHITE EDITION

12.5" h x 3.75" w | $249.99 | Teen+ | 4/6

artists: Frank Thorne (art), Steve Kiwus (sculptor)

Few artists can capture Red Sonja's strength and power like Frank Thorne! For decades, Thorne rendered some of her most iconic comic covers and Dynamite welcomes the 45th anniversary of Red Sonja with this deluxe, commemorative statue based on Thorne's striking cover for 1976's Red Sonja #4. Standing over a foot tall, Red Sonja is at the ready, with a weapon in each hand and a stylized shield base under her feet. With those almond eyes and powerful pose, there's no mistaking Thorne's artistic influence on Dynamite's 3D homage to Frank's legend.

The penultimate issue for this current installment! Beauty meets beautiful (and highly defended) beast as Barbarella takes the fight right to The Lady's doorstep. Doing so means tracking down The Lady's hidden home world and doing that means fighting through the masses determined to keep it hidden! If it's that hard to make planetfall, what the heck awaits our hero? And what is the incredible, tragic connection between The Lady and Tain?! All this, and cringy one-liners, too!

This final volume of Christopher Priest's core run on the record-breaking 50th anniversary celebration of Vampirella includes a trio of pivotal and exciting tales of the Daughter of Drakulon. The star of the show here is "The Long Night," concluding his long arc, as Vampirella returns from her interstellar journey pursued by the enigmatic vampire-hunting Shane. Events are set in motion and past secrets revealed that will lead to the blockbuster final issue featuring... Vampi's wedding to Dracula!

Then flash back to the "Chokula" arc featuring a beach vacation, a romantic fling, and more development of the all-new Draculina as the title celebrated Black History Month with guest artist Giovanni Timpano and striking covers by some of the greatest African American artists of our time. Last but certainly not least, artist Madibek Musabekov checks in for a special horror themed issue artistically tributing the Warren era.

WHEN ONE SENSE IS LOST, THE OTHERS GROW STRONGER.

Against vicious odds, Hannah completes the first step in revenge against the Chimera, with deadly results.

Vanessa confesses her knowledge of a destiny they can't avoid, and a sacrifice they'll have to make. Meanwhile, a defector from the Chimera continues to help Hannah. But as more of her humanity slips away in her grief and rage, a hauntingly-familiar voice returns her to a world of unimaginable pain.

New York Times bestselling horror writer Cullen Bunn (Harrow County, The Empty Man) reunites with his Bone Parish co-creator, artist Jonas Scharf (Avengers Of The Wasteland), to continue the second chapter of their hit rural horror series laced with supernatural fantasy rooted in the way we process the world—our senses. Collects Basilisk #5-8.

On All Hallows' Eve, a community struggles under the boot of the Nazi war machine when supernatural forces come to play a part in the conflict! From the artist of the bestselling Something is Killing the Children comes a tale that will send shivers up your spine...

It's World War 2 and the struggle between good and evil is in full force. In Prague, the great Bohemian city is being oppressed by the Nazi occupation and the population lives in terror, while the resistance forces try to organize themselves in the shadows. It is an almost impossible task. With the ruthless SS tightening their grip on every street and neighborhood with overwhelming might, only one hope feeds the struggle. A crazy hope, which rests on the fragile foundations of an ancient, monstrous legend...

The HE WHO FIGHTS WITH MONSTERS hardcover collects the hit series and includes a complete cover gallery plus bonus material.

WRITER: JEON GEUK-JIN | ARTIST: PARK JIN-HWAN

Si-Woon comes to the rescue of his friend Sae-Hee, who has been kidnapped by Chang-Ho, the school bully, and his gang. Will Si-Woo be able to control his strength and newly acquired powers in front of his opponents who, although violent, are merely human? Si-Woon is also unaware that at that moment, So-Chun Hyuk, heir to the Chun-Do clan, witnesses the scene and discovers the true talents of the young man...

With the arrival of So-Chun, the story enters a new, much more intense chapter, especially for young hero Si-Woon, who is now caught up in the Murim universe. A new world of dangers lies ahead, and the young high school student will have to start fighting on his own, against enemies of a different caliber! He may be entering a spiral of violence in which he may never come out.

A true bestseller in South Korea and already translated into many languages, Jeon Geuk-jin and Park Jin-Hwan's fighting manhwa has been praised for its sensational action, as well as its captivating storyline, with many charismatic characters and stylish martial arts techniques that will keep you glued to the page, wanting more!

Michelle is back, she has her own crew, and she's making her own rules. Unfortunately, her tendency for getting into hot water still remains, and her involvement in that now-infamous job in Florida, known as the Kaiju Score, is haunting her in many different ways. It's about to put her on a collision course with a new job, new characters and – of course – new monsters. The second volume of the critically acclaimed, best-selling KAIJU SCORE (optioned by Sony Pictures) is here, and just like last time, not everyone will get out alive.

Written by James Patrick (CAMPISI: THE DRAGON INCIDENT, Grimm Fairy Tales, Death Comes to Dillinger, The Monsters of Jimmy Crumb) and illustrated by Rem Broo (The End Times of Bram and Ben, Terminal Protocol), KAIJU SCORE: STEAL FROM THE GODS takes the crazy of the first volume to new heights of WTF!

I had a family once. A wife who loved me...a child we loved together. That's all gone now, been gone for hundreds of years. All because of that damn star. My name? It depends on where you live. Some call me Kris Kringle, others Papa Noël, but my real name is Nicholas Sinterklass, and this is the story of what happens when you steal my Naughty List.

Up on the housetop CLICK, CLICK, CLICK! Down through the chimney with old Saint Nick!

From the mind of Nick Santora (The Sopranos, Law & Order, The Fugitive, Prison Break) and illustrated by Lee Ferguson (SYMPATHY FOR NO DEVILS, Sam and his Talking Gun) comes the Santa Claus origin story we're sure you've never heard before.

Time has run out! The shield protecting Megalopolis 9 can fall at any moment. The future of the population is in the hands of the Palladions and the reconnection team, who come across an unexpected obstacle that can only be solved by spilling blood: the blood of an old friend.

Destiny puts Tala and Hototo in the way of a hurtful crossroad that asks them to break their promises. Sometimes hearts are forced to be silent.

Meanwhile, Nesbo and his nomad caravan face the hostility of the New Nature. Hope might be all that they have on their side and the only thing capable of guiding them to a safe port. Decisions and paths can't be walked back, and storms can't be stopped.

Even when knowing that everything might be lost, forward is the only way to go.

Stuck on their desolate hill in the jungle, surrounded and outnumbered by Japanese forces, the British dig in for the long haul – but events elsewhere conspire to rob them of supplies and resources they so desperately need. As the perimeter shrinks under relentless enemy assault, more and more of the men reach their breaking point – and not just on the front line, with even medical personnel forced into almost impossible decisions. With no hope of relief in sight, how long can Crosby, Whitmore and Singh preserve their force against annihilation?

The wickedness of mankind has moved the Creator to destroy the world by way of flood. Noah has been tasked with building an ark to save his family and the animals of the world. But this is not Noah's story. For darker powers have commanded the sorcerer Shrae to build his own ark and save the unnatural creatures of the world – such as the vampires, the dragons and the mantichore. But what will happen on a vessel crawling with monsters, where insidious intrigue and horrific violence are the rule of law?

A sinister saga of biblical proportions from master of horror Cullen Bunn (EDEN, PIECEMEAL, UNHOLY GRAIL, X-Men Blue, Deadpool, Venom) and artist Juan Doe (AMERICAN MONSTER, WORLD READER), this comprehensive hardcover volume features the entire DARK ARK series as well as the follow-up series, DARK ARK: AFTER THE FLOOD.

Mitchell Moss is about as regular as it gets. He's married with two children and co-owns a successful chain of Memphis Hot Chicken restaurants. It's not the life that screams hero/vigilante...until he discovers that his business partner is in bed with the mob and owes them $2 million. Unfortunately, Mitch is ill-equipped to be a badass – he's just a guy who makes really good chicken. Can he protect his family from cold-blooded gangsters? Absolutely not. But maybe the CHICKEN DEVIL can...

Writer Brian Buccellato (Detective Comics, The Flash, Witchblade) and artist Hayden Sherman (COLD WAR, MARY SHELLEY MONSTER HUNTER) serve up a darkly comedic crime drama that's juicy, tender and finger-lickin' hilarious.

This 120-page trade paperback collects the entire first volume, issues #1-4.

CLOUD TOWN GN

(W/A) Daniel McCloskey

In Dan McCloskey's debut graphic novel, best friends Pen and Olive live in Cloud Town, an impoverished community on Floating Island, a mysterious landmass that drifts above the earth and happens to sit dangerously close to the Rip—a tear in the fabric of the universe. While Pen is brash and brave, Olive is quiet, kind, and also fearful of bullies at school. That is, at least until the day they are nearly squashed by a Care Corp Storm Catcher, a giant android built to protect Cloud Town and the rest of Floating Island from Hurricanes, monsters that travel across the Rip. It isn't the event itself that changes the girls' relationship. It isn't the fear of death that drives them apart, or the questionable decision-making that leads Pen to drag Olive into the cab of the crashed robot. It's the fact that Olive can move the 90-foot-tall machine and Pen can't. Care Corp recruits Olive to train as a pilot, so that she can protect Floating Island when the next attack comes. It's a role reversal, for which neither of the girls are prepared. (STL220539) (C: 0-1-0)

TIN MAN GN

(W/A) Justin Madson

In Justin Madson's debut graphic novel, Tin Man, a girl and her brother befriend the titular Tin Man with unexpected results. Solar is in her last year of high school and is reeling from the recent death of her grandmother. She has abandoned her plans for the future and fallen in with a bad crowd. Her little brother, Fenn, doesn't understand why she's changed—she doesn't even want to help him build their rocket in the garage anymore. Campbell is a tin woodsman—a clunky metal man whose sole purpose in life is to chop down trees. He longs for more, however, and decides to seek out a heart, believing that, with one, he will be able to feel things he has never felt before and, therefore, change his life.

kids COMICS

(W) Beth Ferry
(A) Gergely Dudas

Fox and Rabbit are cooking up something very special for Sparrow's birthday! Sparrow loves food, so Fox and Rabbit team up with Owl to create the world's biggest pizza. But, since they don't have the world's biggest oven, they don't know how to cook it. Fox and Rabbit decide to ask for help from Dragon. They've never met Dragon (who hopefully likes to eat pizza, not foxes or rabbits...), but they find their courage together. Dragon wants to help but has never eaten pizza. In fact, Fox has never had a friend or been to a birthday party before, either. It's up to Fox and Rabbit to

THE PRISONER OF SHIVERSTONE GN

(W/A) Linette Moore

In Linette Moore's debut, middle-grade graphic novel, eleven-year-old Helga Sharp is found unconscious in a drifting rowboat near the coast of Utley Island. Utley, as Helga finds out when she awakens in the hospital, is forbidden territory: it's a prison island to which the Mainland has exiled troublesome mad scientists for generations. The truth is, it's no accident that Helga landed here. She is a keen inventor, but the Mainland is suspicious of all scientists and inventors. While working on her projects in secret, Helga made radio contact with Erasmus Lope, a mad genius who everyone thought had died in a lab experiment gone spectacularly wrong. But Lope is alive, and Helga is on a mission to rescue him from the prison island. Now Helga must find a way to break Lope out, right under the noses of the family of famous heroes that run Utley Island. There's only one big problem—Lope's trapped inside a giant crystal in the mad scientists' museum! (STL220538) (C: 0-1-0)

Story/Art: Motofumi Kobayashi

Collects Cat Shit One Vol. 1 #1-3, Vol. 2 #1-3, Vol. 3 #1-3

In this semi-fictionalized rendition of actual historical conflicts, Sergeants Perky, Rats and Botasky comprise the special forces unit named Cat Shit One, risking their lives for over 20 years in the jungles of Vietnam, the island tropics just off South America, and the mountain and desert wilds of Afghanistan.

All three volumes of Motofumi Kobayashi's renowned war manga, filled with intense action and painstaking detail, are now collected at full comic size for the first time ever! This hard-hitting collection is a bomb of battlefield action that'll set the combat manga world ablaze!

SCRIPT: BILL GOLLIHER, CRAIG BOLDMAN & VARIOUS ART: BILL GOLLIHER, BEN GALVAN, JIM AMASH, BOB SMITH & VARIOUS COVER: FRANCIS BONNET, JEFF SHULTZ & ROSARIO "TITO" PEÑA

BRAND NEW STORIES: First, "For the Love of Jughead!" It's springtime and love is in the air... for everyone except Jughead, of course. This inspires Betty and Veronica to come up with an idea—to combine Jughead's love of food with the world of dating. They plot to send him on a series of dinner dates with a few of their female friends. Will the love bug finally bite Jughead—or have Betty and Veronica bit off more than they can chew?

Then, Cricket O'Dell, with her unerring nose for money, keeps being drawn to a new visitor to Riverdale who, by all appearances, is virtually a pauper. She can't figure it out. Veronica notices this and is intrigued. She deduces that the new guy must be a secret billionaire, and makes it her project to win him over. Will Veronica find out his true identity? Or is Cricket's nose's losing its secret powers?

BRAND NEW STORIES: "Trails and Tribulations!" When the gang's favorite hiking trail gets washed out, they need to find a new one—but every other trail is riddled with problems! Will they be able to find the perfect trail and enjoy the great outdoors?

Then, in "A Million Dollars Short," Veronica realizes that she misplaced her purse, which had a million dollars in it. Betty enlists the help of Cricket O'Dell to use her sense of smell to track down the missing purse. Betty and Veronica follow Cricket throughout Riverdale as she follows her nose towards the scent of the missing money! Will they be able to track down the missing loot?

DAMSELS IN EXCESS:

Five realms. Five princesses. Zero men. In the land of the Five Realms, the existence of men has long since evaporated from the hearts and minds of women after a catastrophic illness forced their extinction. Princess Bethany--ruler of Evanfar, the largest and most prominent kingdom, finds herself at the center of a vast conspiracy that not only threatens her kingdom—but also her life! Journey to a place where magic is abundant, unicorns and ferrets can command armies, and five women struggle to find balance—and power—in an ever-changing fairy tale world.

HIT ME #2

Written by Christa Faust Illustrated by Priscilla Petraitis Colored by Marco Lesko Cover by Jeff Dekal

A high-octane crime thriller from Christa Faust (Bad Mother, Redemption) and Priscilla Petraitis (Chariot). Lulu has a very unique profession: She gets paid by the bruise. When she is witness to the execution of one of her regular clients, she escapes into the night with a briefcase filled with diamonds and a pack of killers on her trail. Navigating the dark underbelly of decaying, early-'90's Atlantic City, one step ahead of her pursuers, Lulu must call upon every one of her street-born instincts and underworld connections in what will be the longest—and possibly last—night of her life.

TELEPATHS TPB

Written by J. Michael Straczynski Illustrated by Steve Epting
Colored by Brian Reber Cover by Steve Epting

The brand new epic from comic book legends J. Michael Straczynski (The Amazing Spider-Man, Thor) and Steve Epting (Captain America: The Winter Soldier). An electromagnetic disturbance results in the sudden awakening of telepathic powers in a tenth of the Earth's population. In the moments after the world comes to grip with this development, newly telepathic Boston police find themselves sent against a wrongly convicted prisoner who becomes a hero and leader of other telepaths trying to escape a world in which their powers will make them targets. Both are heroes of their own story, and the future may depend on whether or not trust can be found between them.

MY FIRST PANDEMIC GN

(W/A) Jamison Odone

My First Pandemic is a collection of drawings, thoughts, poems, comics, anger, happiness, life, and death from a difficult period in our history. Over the last two years, between crises and quarantines, Jamison has had time. Time to reflect, to page through old books of poetry, to draw hundreds of rabbit people — for some reason. The loss of a step-father, followed by the loss of a good friend, gives cause to contemplate one's own mortality. It's strange how the thoughts of 19th-century poets can echo our own. What will we leave behind when our time comes? Sadness, sure, but also wee, silly drawings in honest-to-goodness paper and ink. (STL220657) (C: 0-1-1)

PART TWO OF TWO. Before our next arc, we have two special issues jamming with guest creators. In this issue:

- LISA STERLE (Witchblood) and AMY SHAND (Prison Witch) take Henley, resident Prophecy Professor, to anger management.

- CLAUDIA AGUIRRE (Kim & Kim) and BRIAN COGAN (Encyclopedia of Punk) look back at Arvid's history of crime and loyalty.

- NATASHA ALTERICI (Heathen) and ERICA SCHULTZ (Forgotten Home) look at the tragic past and odd future of Lilith and Song.

- Songwriter/artist KATIE KUFFEL and PAT SHAND team up for a dream-like comic poem to close out Destiny, NY's second arc and send us off to the sunny shores of California for a new story.

HECATE'S WILL TP

written & illustrated by IOLANDA ZANFARDINO

$17.99 | 144 pages | Mature

In HECATE'S WILL, we meet legendary NYC graffiti artist Hecate, who is facing burnout & despair and has decided to retire, abandoning her dream of changing the world through art.

But, before she quits, she's going to create one final street-art experience: a graffiti scavenger hunt through the streets of Manhattan that will lead her fans to a final message and artistic testament.

As her street-art experiment catches fire with young NYC artists and activists, Hecate's best friend ropes her into working on a revival of the musical 'RENT' by a joyous ensemble of LGBTQIA+ artists who remind her how art brings people together, challenging all of Hecate's expectations and assumptions. But will it be enough to inspire Hecate to renew her convictions and remain true to her artistic self?

As Iolanda describes the book: "HECATE'S WILL is a story for anyone who knows that making Art means proudly showing your scars to the world."

With HECATE'S WILL, Iolanda Zanfardino (Alice In Leatherland, A Thing Called Truth) has created a character struggling against creative burnout, isolation, and heartache. Hecate's true nemesis is despair itself--she just might be the very hero we need right now.

PRAISE FOR HECATE'S WILL

"Bow to Hecate's Will... Iolanda Zanfardino has done a masterful job as both writer and illustrator."
-Cat Purcell, ComicsXF

"Very RUNAWAYS-esque and BREAKFAST CLUB with a group of diverse teens... Iolanda Zanfardino is always fun, always entertaining."
-Comics With Shots

"This comic is gonna shatter your comfort zone with a story that feels like truth and shines as fiction. The scars showed here were ones that I instantly recognized and connected with, and I can only recommend you let them move you."

DEAD RECKONING

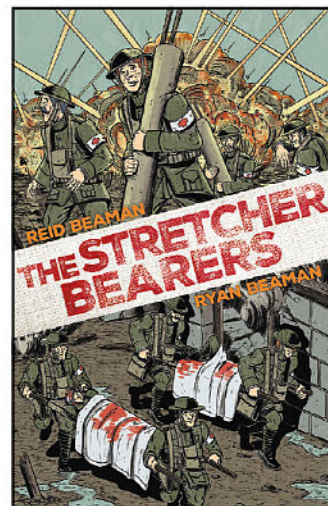

THE STRETCHER BEARERS GN

(W) Reid Beaman, Ryan Beaman

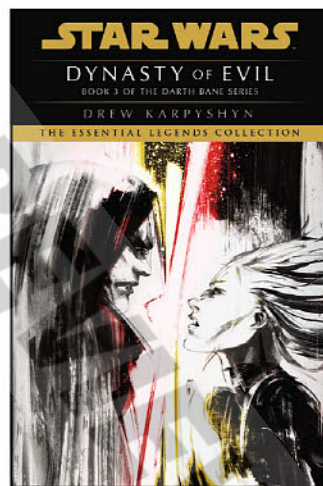

(A) Reid Beaman

Maxwell Fox didn't know what he would witness in France. America had only been in the Great War since April 6, 1917. Nothing could have prepared him for the horrors that awaited him and the rest of the men of the 4th Infantry "Ivy" Division. As the Meuse-Argonne Offensive raged on, Maxwell became assigned to a unit of stretcher bearers, men who were tasked with running into harm's way to rescue their fallen brethren from the clutches of death. A dark and honest look at the bond of brotherhood during war, The Stretcher Bearers tells the unforgettable tale of a young soldier trying to save the lives of wounded soldiers and keep the men he'd formed a bond with alive. STAR WARS: DARTH BANE— DYNASTY OF EVIL SC

(W) Drew Karpyschyn

Darth Bane is beginning to suffer from drawing heavily upon the Dark Side of the Force for so many years. At the same time, he has begun to doubt his apprentice, Zannah, as she has not yet attempted to kill him. When he learns of an ancient Sith artifact that may hold the secret to immortality, he seeks out in search of it alone. But Zannah is anything but weak, and she knows this is the time to defeat her master. The forces of evil will clash, with the future of the Sith hanging in the balance. (STL220633) (C: 0-1-1)

STAR WARS: DARTH PLAGUEIS SC

(W) James Luceno

As an apprentice, Darth Plagueis embraces the ruthless ways of the Sith. And when the time is right, he destroys his Master — but vows never to suffer the same fate. For like no other disciple of the dark side, Darth Plagueis learns to command the ultimate power — over life and death. Plagueis's chosen apprentice, Darth Sidious, secretly studies the ways of the Sith, while publicly rising to power in the galactic government, first as Senator, then as Chancellor, and eventually as Emperor. Darth Plagueis and Darth Sidious, Master and acolyte, target the galaxy for domination — and the Jedi Order for annihilation. But can they defy the merciless Sith tradition? (STL220631) (C: 0-1-1)

DRAWN & QUARTERLY

AYA: LOVE IN YOP CITY GN

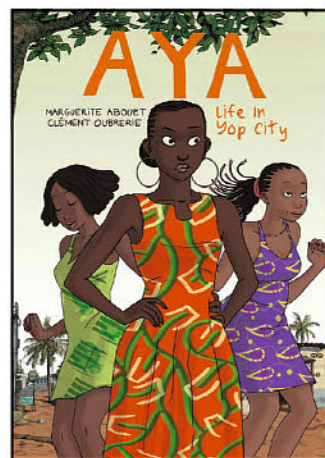

(W) Marguerite Abouet

(A/CA) Clement Oubrerie

Aya: Love in Yop City comprises the final three chapters of the Aya story, episodes never before seen in English. Aya is a lighthearted story about life in the Ivory Coast during the 1970s, a particularly thriving and wealthy time in the country's history. This second volume of the complete Aya includes unique appendices—recipes, guides to understanding Ivorian slang, street sketches, and concluding remarks from Marguerite Abouet explaining history and social milieu. Inspired by Abouet's childhood, the series has received praise for offering relief from the disaster-struck focus of most stories set in Africa. (STL191469) (C: 0-1-1)

ESSENTIAL ITEMS

AYA: LIFE IN YOP CITY GN

Ivory Coast, 1978. It's a golden time, and the nation, too—an oasis of affluence and stability in West Africa—seems fueled by something wondrous. Aya is loosely based upon Marguerite Abouet's youth in Yop City. It is the story of the studious and clear-sighted 19-year-old Aya, her easy-going friends Adjoua and Bintou, and their meddling relatives and neighbors. It's wryly funny, breezy account of the simple pleasures and private troubles of everyday life in Yop City. (STL191897)

THE PEANUTBUTTER SISTERS & OTHER AMERICAN STORIES

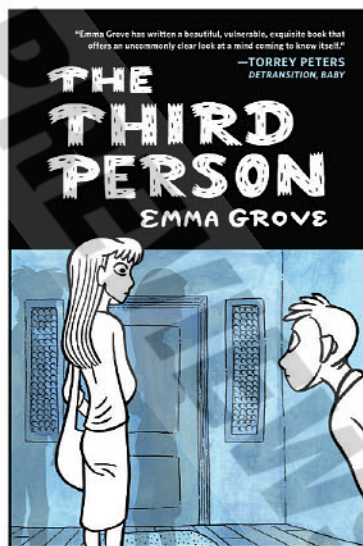

(W/A/CA) Rumi Hara

The Peanutbutter Sisters is a glorious balance of contradictions, at once escapism and realism, science fiction and slice of life. Two students explore the urban landscape while following Queens-Brooklyn border. As they do, they plan a traditional Japanese play with contemporary pop culture. Another story features an intergalactic race of all living things set in the year 2099 and is a dazzling treatise on the environment and journalism. Hara's innate control of the comics language is refreshingly unrivaled. (STL219533) (C: 0-1-1)

THE THIRD PERSON SC

(W/A/CA) Emma Grove

The Third Person is a riveting memoir from newcomer Emma Grove. Drawn in thick, emotive lines, with the refined style of a comics vet, Grove has created a singular, gripping depiction of the intersection of identities and trauma as she and her therapist, Toby, grapple with her possible Dissociative Identity Disorder as she seeks approval for gender affirming care. The Third Person is a testament to the importance of having the space to heal and live authentically. ESSENTIAL ITEMSFIRE!! THE ZORA NEALE HURSTON STORY HC

(W/A/CA) Peter Bagge

Peter Bagge's biography of Zora Neale Hurston is bold and dazzling, a story as brilliant as the life itself. Hurston challenged the norms of what was expected of an African American woman in early 20th century society. She arrived in NYC at the height of the Harlem Renaissance, surrounded by peers such as Langston Hughes and Wallace Thurman. Hurston went on to become a noted folklorist and critically acclaimed novelist, including her most provocative work, Their Eyes Were Watching God. (STL032546)

HOT COMB GN

(W/A/CA) Ebony Flowers

Hot Comb offers a poignant glimpse into Black women's lives and coming of age stories as seen across a crowded, ammonia-scented hair salon while ladies gossip and bond over the burn. The titular story is about a young girl's first perm—a doomed ploy to look cool and to stop seeming “too white” in the all-black neighborhood her family has just moved to. Realizations about race, class, and the imperfections of identity swirl through Flowers' stories, which are by turns sweet, insightful, and heartbreaking. (STL114404)

GEORGE SPROTT HC

(W/A/CA) Seth

Celebrated cartoonist Seth gives us the fictional life of George Sprott. On the surface George seems a charming, foolish, old man, but who is he? And who was he? Told as a patchwork tale, we come to know George, piece by piece, in a series of “interviews,” flashbacks, and personal reminiscences. George Sprott is a story about time, identity, loss, and the persistence of memory. (STK392340)

HC, 10x14, 96pgs, FC.....$24.95

IT'S A GOOD LIFE IF YOU DON'T WEAKEN TP

(W/A/CA) Seth

While trying to understand his ennui, Seth discovers the life and work of Kalo, a forgotten New Yorker cartoonist from the 1940s. But his obsession blinds him to the needs of his lover and the quiet desperation of his family. Wry self-reflection and moody colors characterize this tale about learning lessons from nostalgia. His playful and sophisticated experiment with memoir provoked a furious debate among cartoon historians and archivists about the existence of Kalo, and prompted a Details feature about Seth's “hoax.” (STK339332)

NORI GN

(W/A/CA) Rumi Hara

Ignatz nominated and MoCCA Arts Festival Award-winning cartoonist Rumi Hara invites you to visit her magical world. Nori (short for Noriko) is a spirited three-year-old girl who lives with her parents and grandmother in the suburbs of Osaka during the 1980s. In mesmerizing short stories of black and white artwork with alternating spot color, Hara draws on East Asian folklore and Japanese culture to create an enchanting milieu that Nori tries to make sense of, wrestling between the reality of what she sees and the legends her grandma shares with her. (STL151213)

THIS IS HOW I DISAPPEAR TP

(W/A/CA) Mirion Malle

Mirion Malle paints an empathetic portrait of a young woman wrestling with psychological stress and the trauma following an experience of sexual assault. Filled with 21st century idioms and social media communication, This Is How I Disappear opens a window into the lives of young people as they face a barrage of mental health hurdles. Scenes of sisterhood, fun nights out singing karaoke, and impromptu FaceTime therapy sessions show how this generation is coping, connecting, and healing together. (STL198089)

Two young women, with extraordinary powers, living 100+ years apart, have to find the way to break free! A poignant story with a dash of Anime flavor! In 1911, a very shy and naive young woman named Vega De Ortega is touring Europe as the "Lady-Bird", going from city to city, from circus to circus, bringing joy to people of all ages. Though she's a lighter-than-a-feather celebrity, she is uncomfortable with everything happening around her. Her benefactor, Count San Remo, has convinced her to become a weapon of War. Unhappy and afraid, she has to free herself. In 2022, Mina is a prisoner. Every day a nurse comes to take samples of her blood and use it as currency for a pharmaceutical company. She has no idea who she is, or why she's even being kept captive. She just knows she's being moved around often, to places she doesn't know anything about. She's also told she can't take off her helmet or she'll die. But an earthquake gives Mina an opportunity to escape and discover her true identity and potential... as a "Lady-Bird"! Two Lady-Birds. Two eras. Same incredible powers: They can fly and their genes are unlike any other known being on the planet. Who are they? And what is their connection? (STL220995) (C: 0-1-2)

THE PASSION OF GENGOROH TAGAME: MASTER OF GAY EROTIC MANGA VOL. 1

Edited by Chip Kidd, Anne Ishii, and Graham Kolbeins, with an introduction by Edmund White

$29.99 / SC with French Flaps / 288 pgs / black-and-white with color / 7" x 10"

This first English paperback edition includes ten short stories dating from the late 1990s to the early 2010s, with an introduction by Edmund White, as well as an essay and jacket design by Chip Kidd. With its over-the-top explicitness depicting scenes of BDSM between hypermasculine men, The Passion of Gengoroh Tagame is a must-have for Tagame fans, as well as fans of bear cultures in general. Produced by veteran "Japanist" Anne Ishii and filmmaker Graham Kolbeins, the book also contains sixteen full-page color illustrations.

THE PASSION OF GENGOROH TAGAME: MASTER OF GAY EROTIC MANGA VOL. 2

Edited by Chip Kidd, Anne Ishii, and Graham Kolbeins, translated by Vincent W.J. van Gerven Oei

$34.99 / SC with French Flaps / 400 pgs / B&W / 7" x 10"

Kings, monks, cops, athletes: no man is safe from the depraved fantasies of gay manga master Gengoroh Tagame. In this adult collection of BDSM comics, Tagame serves up what his fans love best: elaborate, sensational, beautifully rendered erotica. The long-awaited follow-up to Tagame's breakthrough collection, The Passion of Gengoroh Tagame Vol. 2 features a treasure trove of stories previously unpublished in English, accompanied by essays and an exclusive interview with the internationally renowned cartoonist.

DISCIPLES

Written by David Birke and Nicholas McCarthy, drawn by Benjamin Marra

$24.99 / HC / 164 pgs / B&W / 5.75" x 8.5"

Clara and Wendy are two teens getting high one night at home. Before the night ends, they've disappeared — until months later, when Clara is found, disheveled, in Death Valley National Park. Disciples then cuts to the present, where Clara has adopted a new identity to protect her and her daughter. Until one night when the past and present horrifically collide. Disciples is a collaboration between cartoonist Ben Marra (Terror Assault, American Blood) and filmmakers David Birke and Nicholas McCarthy.

SCHAPPI

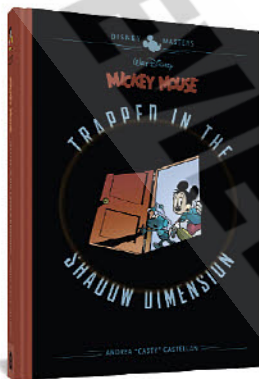

By Anna Haifisch

$16.99 / SC / 96 pgs / FC / 8" x 9.75"

In Schappi, Anna Haifisch blurs the boundaries between humans and animals in subtle yet absurd ways. In these five collected short stories, carnivores and herbivores meet at a congress of the animals. With singular humor and charm, Anna Haifisch tells of the everyday struggle from the prairie to the drawing table, of self-imposed isolation and friendship. At the end of the day, there is hope, even for crying weasels. Printed in five gorgeous Pantone inks, Schappi will shine from a bookshelf like a mad husky's iris.

A Creator You Should Know: JACK KAMEN

After his initial work for EC Comics, which came at the end of their "Pre-Trend" era on the final two issues of Modern Love, Jack Kamen quickly made himself a vital component of the company's "New Trend" efforts. He illustrated the very first "Old Witch" story (written by Al Feldstein) in Haunt of Fear #2 (#16/2) and frequently contributed to Crime Suspense Stories and Shock Suspense Stories. His classic "Squeeze Play" cover for Shock Suspense Stories #13 (May 1954) was for Frank Frazetta's only solo story at EC, and he also provided covers for the final three issues of Crime Suspense Stories. Outside of his EC work, Kamen was known as one of the top "good girl" artists for his popular covers on Fox's Zoot and Rulah and Four Star's Brenda Starr, and he turned this to his advantage when his sexy "Kamen Girls" worked well for the Crime and Shock series. In addition, his art was seen in the George Romero - Stephen King film Creepshow, and on the cover of the Creepshow graphic novel.

HISTORY COMICS: THE NATIONAL PARKS GN

(W/A) Fallynn Koch

Discover the natural beauty of our National Parks, from the sequoias of Yosemite to the geysers of Yellowstone! In this volume of History Comics, turn back the clock to 1872, when Congress established Yellowstone National Park as an area of unspoiled beauty for the "benefit and enjoyment of the people." Meet the visionaries, artists, and lovers of the American wilderness who fought against corruption and self-interest to carve out and protect these spaces for future generations. See for yourself how the idea of National Parks began, how they've changed, and how they continue to define

America. (C: 0-1-0)

(A) Angela Boyle

After Isaac is caught vandalizing a sign at his local community garden, he's put to work under the wing of one of the gardeners, Aurora. But Isaac's time with Aurora isn't just about growing vegetables! As they make useful projects together for the garden and for Isaac's home, Aurora teaches Isaac about the natural and human-built systems we're all a part of, how our decisions and lifestyles impact the planet, and how even a kid can make better choices to live more sustainably! As with all the titles in the Maker Comics series, Live Sustainably is a step-by-step DIY guide that will help kids roll up their sleeves and get making with confidence! In this book you'll learn how to make a composting worm farm, beeswax food wrappers, a bee garden, and more. (C: 0-1-0)

THE WELL GN

(W) Jake Wyatt (A) Choo

Li-Zhen's life on the archipelago is simple. Known to friends and family as Lizzy, she takes care of her grandfather and their goats, she flirts with the woman who helps row the ferry, and she stays away from the fog that comes in the night—and the monsters hiding within it. But Lizzy's life comes apart when she steals a handful of coins from a sacred well to cover a debt. The well requires repayment, but it doesn't deal in coins. It needs wishes, and its minions will drown Lizzy in its depths if she doesn't grant them. Lizzy finds herself on a quest to uncover hidden memories, bestow great wealth, and face the magical secrets that nearly destroyed her family—and are now returning to threaten everything she has ever known. TEN DAYS IN A MAD-HOUSE GN

(W) Brad Ricca (A) Courtney Sieh

Beautifully adapted and rendered through piercing illustrations by acclaimed creators Brad Ricca and Courtney Sieh, Nellie Bly's complete, true-to-life 19th-century investigation of Blackwell Asylum captures a groundbreaking moment in history and reveals a haunting and timely glimpse at the starting point for conversations on mental health. While working for Joseph Pulitzer's newspaper in 1887, Nellie Bly began an undercover investigation into the local Women's Lunatic Asylum on Blackwell Island. Intent on seeing what life was like on the inside, Bly fooled trained physicians into thinking she was insane—a task too easily achieved—and had herself committed. In her ten days at the asylum, Bly witnessed horrifying conditions: the food was inedible, the women were forced into labor for the staff, the nurses and doctors were cruel or indifferent, and many of the women held there had no mental disorder of any kind. (STL220320) (C: 0-1-0)

SO MUCH FOR LOVE: HOW I SURVIVED A TOXIC RELATIONSHIP HC

(W/A) Sophie Lambda

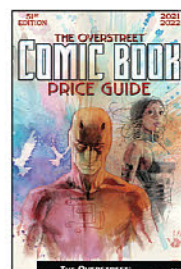

Sophie had always been cynical about love—until she meets Marcus. His affection and doting praise melt away her defenses. The beginning of their relationship was a whirlwind romance, but over time she finds herself on uneven footing. Marcus lies. He's violently angry and bewilderingly inconsistent. Yet somehow he always manages to explain away his behavior and to convince Sophie that it's all in her head. Sophie comes to realize that she's become trapped in a cycle of abuse with someone with narcissistic personality disorder. Part graphic memoir, part self-help book, So Much For Love guides readers with honesty and humor through the disorienting spiral of a toxic relationship and offers a clarifying and empathetic point of view. (C: 0-1-0)

BLACK PANTHER: SHURI & T'CHALLA: INTO THE HEARTLANDS GN

(W) Roseanne A. Brown & Various

(A/CA) Claudia Aguirre

An original Black Panther graphic novel! Twelve-year-old Shuri is a lot of things. Scientist. Princess. All around cooler person than her pain-in-the-butt big brother, T'Challa. Shuri knows she could do so much more to help Wakanda, but everyone is obsessed with the prince because he's the next Black Panther. That is, until Soul Washing Day, one of the most important rituals of Wakandan society. When an argument between T'Challa and Shuri leads to one of Shuri's inventions accidentally destroying the sacred ceremony site, chaos reigns instead of prosperity. Suddenly the people of Wakanda, including her mother the queen, are becoming sick! Could this be a curse from the ancestors? If Shuri and T'Challa can set aside their jealousy and resentment of each other long enough to survive a journey in the Heartlands to investigate an ancient myth that might hold the cure, they might just discover that they are far more powerful together than they could ever be apart. (W) Lauren Tarshis

(A/CA) Berat Pekmezci

No grizzly has ever killed a human in Glacier National Park before... until tonight. Eleven-year-old Melody Vega and her family come to Glacier every year. Mel loves it here—the beautiful landscapes and wildlife make it easy to forget her real-world troubles. But this year is different. With Mom gone, every moment in the park is a reminder of the past. Then Mel comes face-to-face with a mighty grizzly. She knows basic bear safety: Don't turn your back. Don't make any sudden movements. And most importantly: Don't run. That last one is the hardest for Mel; she's been running from her problems all her life. If she wants to survive tonight, she'll have to find the courage to face her fear. Based on the real-life grizzly attacks of 1967, this bold graphic novel tells the tragic story. (C: 0-1-0)

LIGHTFALL VOLUME 2: SHADOW OF THE BIRD GN

(W/A) Tim Probert

Lightfall: Shadow of the Bird picks up right where The Girl and the Galdurian left off—in a hidden settlement where Bea and Cad have been taken in by mysterious creatures known as the Arsal. Meanwhile, the Feather Knights continue their raid on the city of Lealand. When the Light of Lealand falls and Kest's Feather Knights turn their attention next to the seaside city of Rinn, Bea and Cad are desperate to find a solution. The heroes seek out the help of an Irpan spirit long-thought extinct, the water spirit known as Lorgon, whose ancient wisdom may help them find a way to take down Kest and save Rinn from utter destruction. But when their time with Lorgon presents more questions than answers about the extinction of their sun, Bea and Cad must decide what's more important: stopping Kest or uncovering the truth. (C: 0-1-1)

BRAVE NEW WORLD HC

(W) Aldous Huxley (A) Fred Fordham

Originally published in 1932, Brave New World is one of the most revered and profound works of twentieth century literature. Touching on themes of control, humanity, technology, and influence, Aldous Huxley's enduring classic is a reflection and a warning of the age in which it was written, yet remains frighteningly relevant today. With its surreal imagery and otherworldly backdrop, Brave New World adapts beautifully to the graphic novel form. Fred Fordham's singular artistic flair and attention to detail and color captures this thought-provoking novel as never before, and introduces it to a new generation, and countless modern readers, in a fresh and compelling way (STL220288) (C: 0-1-0)

BIORIPPLE GN

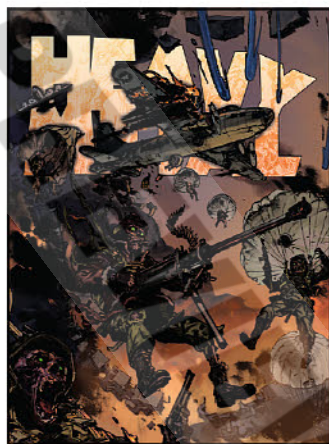

(W) Nir Levie

Emily is a law enforcement teacher who suffers from an anxiety disorder. Actual law enforcement isn't performed by people, with automatons having replaced humans. In Emily's world, humanity discovered that consciousness occupies multiple dimensions. Technology has allowed them to digitally house minds. This is referred to as "Hopping" which became illegal after it was proved that the minds that hop begin to suffer and go into a heightened state of panic. Every individual is connected to Geodesics, a powerful AI which converses with each person and guides their decisions. The Manifold is an anti-Geodesics organization. When Emily is called upon to locate a hopper, she fails to apprehend him due to an unknown force used by The Manifold. Freedom of choice itself hangs in the balance as the forces of the technological world and biological mysteries collide. (STL220113) (C: 0-1-2)

SURVIVING THE WILD: RAINBOW THE KOALA GN

(W/A) Remy Lai

Surviving the Wild is a series of stand-alone graphic novels for 6-9-year-olds featuring adorable and heroic animals overcoming the odds in the perilous wilderness. Rainbow the Koala is ready to go off and live on his own—or so his mom says. But Rainbow is scared! The kookaburra bird cackles at him and he struggles to find a tree to call his home. As scorching heat takes hold and Rainbow runs out of water, he'll soon face his most dangerous test: surviving a bush fire. In addition to the rich narrative and irresistible art, backmatter will describe the true story that inspired the book, animal facts, and steps kids can take to help protect the environment. SCI-FI ACTION ADVENTURE THRILLER ESPIONAGE MYSTERY

An agent working for the U.S. Bureau of Temporal Affairs sets out to discover the source of several anomalies in the timeline—only to become imprisoned in an inescapable time loop.

The discovery of time travel is unknown to the general public, but a new Cold War rages between global intelligence agencies as they attempt to alter historical events in favor of their respective futures. When new intel points the U.S. Bureau of Temporal Affairs (BTA) toward a hostile anomaly in the past, veteran field agent Tarik Abdelnasser and his new partner, Lucia Olmos, are dispatched to investigate. They discover a radical adversary wielding a new technology that could unravel everything the BTA fights to maintain.

THE UNOFFICIAL HARRY POTTER COMPANION VOLUME 1: SORCERER'S STONE HC

(W) Various
The Alohomora! podcast began five years after the release of the final Harry Potter book as a way to rediscover the original magic of the novels. This new companion series is designed to help readers discover new ideas, connections, and secrets embedded throughout the books and explore them in a whole new way. For each chapter of Harry Potter and the Sorcerer's Stone, readers will find information gathered from a multitude of official sources, including a timeline that puts everything into an easily envisioned context. Readers will discover helpful information about characters, events, artifacts, and more. Insights and analysis drawn from the hosts and guests of the podcast starts a reader of the companion on their journey of their own analysis. In addition, there are explorations of popular fan theories, both those that were popular at the novel's time of publication and have been disproved, and those that continue in the fandom today. LITTLE MONARCHS GN

(W/A) Jonathan Case

It's been fifty years since a sun shift wiped out nearly all mammal life across the earth. Towns and cities are abandoned relics, autonomous machines maintain roadways, and the world is slowly being reclaimed by nature. Isolated pockets of survivors keep to themselves in underground sites, hiding from the lethal sunlight by day and coming above ground at night. 10-year-old Elvie and her caretaker, Flora, a biologist, are the only two humans who can survive during daylight because Flora made an incredible discovery - a way to make an antidote to sun sickness using the scales from monarch butterfly wings. Unfortunately, it can only be made in small quantities and has a short shelf life. Will they discover a way to go from a treatment to a cure and preserve the remains of humanity, or will their efforts be thwarted by disaster and the very people they are trying to save? (C: 0-1-1)

DUNGEON: TWILIGHT VOLUMES 1-2: DRAGON CEMETERY TP

(W) Joann Sfar

(A) Lewis Trondheim

Collecting the first 4 stories of Twilight! The planet Terra Amata, on which Dungeon resides, has stopped turning. On one side, total darkness and absolute coldness; on the other, a searing desert and eternal day. The survivors live on a thin slice of earth where day and night meet. A territory known as Twilight. Welcome to the third facet of the Dungeon world, its dark downfall. Marvin, now old and blind, sensing his end, goes on a long trek to the legendary cemetery of dragons. And then, saved at the last minute from certain death in a duel by his young warrior admirer Marvin the Red, he simply cannot be let to die like he wishes! Whatever he loses, he regains in different powers. He's even become invincible. It's to the point where he'd rather exchange body parts to get back his mortality! But then he is led to a discovery that may make continuing to live actually worth it (STL220084) (C: 0-1-0)

DUNGEON: THE EARLY YEARS VOLUMES 1-2 TP

(W) Lewis Trondheim

(A/CA) Christophe Blain

In the sprawling world of Dungeon, the Early Years subseries relates the origins of it. In this first story, you will see the Keeper barely an adult leaving his family to go find fortune in a time of chaos and darkness. Hyacinthe, Dungeon Keeper to be, continues to render justice in a cloak nightly as The Night Shirt and stumbles upon the one he pines for, Alexandra, an assassin, about to be raped! After his valiant and heroic rescue, his wettest dreams come true... with dire consequences. In the second story which happens quite a few years later, he's married and a poor husband, worse even, a poor lover, until Alexandra plots to gain him back. Cloak and dagger with romantic bravu-ra! And you thought he didn't have it in him. (STL196972) (C: 0-1-0)

RALPH AZHAM VOLUME 1: BLACK ARE THE STARS GN

(W/A) Lewis Trondheim

From the award-winning mind of cartoonist Lewis Trondheim comes the expansive and rich anthropomorphic medieval world of Ralph Azham. After failing the test of the Chosen One as a young duck, Ralph had a tough time growing up as the village pariah, often getting into trouble due to an innate extra sense that's rather unbelievable, embarrassing, and unfortunate. That was only compounded by the constant visit of spirits that only he, Ralph, could see. Cut to today, his village is threatened by a vicious Horde, an apocalyptic flood may take the life of Ralph's only supporter, his father, and the Wise Men's Counsel are out for Ralph's hide after rumors he had seduced one of their daughters. Ultimately Ralph must leave the village and unlock the secrets of his childhood as he journeys to the Kingdom of Astolia, but not before he takes a young ward, Raoul, who bears an uncanny similarity to Ralph. It's a sprawling story of fathers and their sons, magic, mysticism, with plenty of action, adventure, and signature Trondheim madcap humor. (C: 0-1-0)

The story of Francis Bacon's life is as complex, colorful, and highly charged as his paintings. Drawn in shades of mauve, red, yellow, and blue that distinguished his palette, these illustrations weave together a troubling but compassionate narrative, one that draws on the tragic events of Bacon's childhood and youth, as well as reflecting the profoundly passionate yearnings of the artist he became. Separated into thematic and chronological sections the novel highlights the prevailing influences of Bacon's life and times: his early autodidacticism and estrangement from his family; his struggles to make his way as a surrealist painter and his destruction of his early work. PS ARTBOOKS: EERIE COMICS #1 MAGAZINE

(A) Joe Kubert & Various

It was January 1947 that the first real, indisputable horror comic came along—Eerie Comics #1, published by Avon. It had a striking cover that was, well... eerie, depicting a strange-looking man with a knife on the steps of some sort of ruin, approaching a bound woman, a theme that was to be repeated countless times in the future... Whet your appetite on these horrors inside including "The Eyes of the Tiger" by Bob Fujitani featuring a pet tiger who gets his first taste for blood; no surprises there then? "Dead Man's Tale" by Jon Small gives us the story of a bottle that gave Myron Morgan wealth and how he died when it was destroyed. "The Man-Eating Lizards" by Joe Kubert, when a plane goes down in the ocean, the surviving crew members find themselves on an island of giant, man-eating lizards. It's hard to point to a particular source or inspiration, such as radio or the pulps, for any of these stories as they were not adaptations and didn't come from any existing series, yet here they are, together as probably the world's first true horror comic! ARU SHAH AND THE END OF TIME GN

(W) Roshani Chokshi (A) Anu Chouhan

Aru Shah has a tendency to stretch the truth in order to fit in at school. While her classmates are jetting off to family vacations in exotic locales, she'll be spending her autumn break at home, in the Museum of Ancient Indian Art and Culture, waiting for her mom to return from her latest archeological trip. Is it any wonder that Aru makes up stories about being royalty, traveling to Paris, and having a chauffeur? One day, three schoolmates show up at Aru's doorstep to catch her in a lie. They don't believe her claim that the museum's Lamp of Bharata is cursed, and they dare Aru to prove it. Just a quick light, Aru thinks. Then she can get herself out of this mess and never ever fib again. But lighting the lamp has dire consequences. She unwittingly frees the Sleeper, an ancient demon whose duty it is to awaken the God of Destruction. Her classmates and beloved mother are frozen in time, and it's up to Aru to save them. The only way to stop the demon is to find the reincarnations of the five legendary Pandava brothers, protagonists of the Hindu epic poem, the Mahabharata, and journey through the Kingdom of Death. But how is one girl in Spider-Man pajamas supposed to do all that? (C: 0-1-0)

How many times have you wanted to reach through the Internet and strangle someone? Or, at the least, give 'em a swift kick in the nuts? Yeah, everyone feels the same way. But... what if you could? Anonymously. Quickly. Violently. Would you? Outrage is the story of a mysterious individual who can navigate the Internet and physically manifest at the source of the vile bile that spews throughout social media. Along with an array of weaponry limited only by his imagination, Outrage can exact swift, merciless justice on anyone who triggers, humiliates, mortifies, stalks, hawks, balks, or otherwise abuses someone on the Internet. And also, anyone who doesn't know the difference between "their," "there," and "they're." But more importantly, Outrage is the story of trying to fight the anger inside the human soul. SNATCHED TP

(W) Sheldon Allen
(A) Mauricio Campetella
From the favelas of Central America, all the way to the scalp of your favorite A-List actress or IG Crush (you know the one I'm talking about), Snatched is a hardcore voyage into the bloody, treacherous, violent, unfiltered, uncompromising, and always unforgiving world of human hair trafficking. Following three parallel storylines, Snatched examines how racism, misogyny, and unchecked capitalism lead the pursuit of one of the world's most visible and lucrative, yet unspoken commodities: hair weave. If you thought the drug game was deadly, wait until you see what goes down in the hair trade. Collects issues #1-4. (STL219499) (C: 0-1-0)

TRISKELE #1

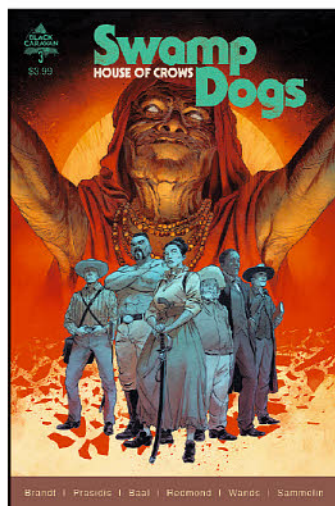

(W) Felipe Pan (A/CA) Monaramis
When young Alec Ellis is granted a magical gift on Samhain night, the scales of power on the island of Albion are inadvertently shifted. Now, together with his friends, he is about to embark on a dangerous journey that shall decide the fate of their entire kingdom. Set in a medieval world populated by characters and events from Celtic myths and legends, Triskele is a visually stunning journey into the world of once forgotten oral traditions. It is an epic story of courage and friendship imbued with fascinating characters and steeped in the magic of Welsh and Irish folklore. (STL219500)

VANITY #1

(W) Jurii Kimey (A) Natalia Tsarevnikova (CA) Joseph Schmalke
Black Caravan Imprint: Every great legend has a beginning and horror stories are no different. However, our tale-as it is based on a true story-begins at the very end. The legendary Blood Countess Elizabeth Bathory is dead, and gravediggers are assigned to relocate her corpse. But who was she really? Was she a monster or a victim? Here we witness Elizabeth's birth and childhood, and see the earliest moments of her life through her eyes. This includes her first encounter with death and blood that awakens the beasts that lurk in her innocent, yet twisted mind. With an introduction by Vampire: The Masquerade's Mark Rein-Hagen. SELFMADEHERO

DAYS OF SAND GN

(W/A) Aimee De Jongh
United States, 1937. In the middle of the Great Depression, 22-year-old photographer John Clark is brought in by the Farm Security Administration to document the calamitous conditions of the Dust Bowl in the central and southern states, in order to bring the farmers' plight to the public eye. When he starts working through his shooting script, however, he finds his subjects to be unresponsive. What good are a couple of photos against relentless and deadly dust storms? The more he shoots, the more John discovers the awful extent of their struggles, and comes to question his own role and responsibilities in this tragedy sweeping through the center of the country. BLACK VOLUME 1 GN

(W) Tobias Taitt (A) Anthony Smith

Tobias Taitt never knew his father, but he knew his mother all too well. After she killed his uncle, three-year-old Tobias was condemned to spend his early years in a series of bleak children's homes. As a black youth growing up in 70's Britain he learned first-hand that the world could be a cold and uncaring place for a child of the state. But he also learned to navigate—and eventually to buck—the system. (STL219649) (C: 0-1-1)

COROLLARY #1

HOT TITLE!

SCI-FI

WRITTEN BY: ADAM ROSE

ART BY: ROBERT AHMAD

ALL AGES!

In a galaxy filled with twin moons, twin suns, and twin planets, everything comes in twos. Even the people. And if your twin dies ... so do you. This is the way it's always been. So, when Captain Andromeda's twin loses her life in a far-off military battle, and Captain Andromeda herself DOES NOT die, needless to say, the universe demands answers. Answers that the Captain is willing to give ... to the highest bidder, of course. This is COROLLARY — a four-issue bombastic sci-fi romp.

COMIC BOOK CREATOR #26

Comic Book Creator presents our career-spanning, in-depth interview with comics phenom Terry Dodson, from breaking into comics at Malibu with Mantra, growth as the quintessential Harley Quinn artist, avoiding a multitude of trouble with Trouble, bouncing between DC (Wonder Woman), Marvel (X-Men), and independents (Red One) and his current Adventureman series with Matt Fraction. Then his go-to inker and wife Rachel Dodson shares a few words about working with hubby! Plus we chat with '70s/'80s portfolio and pro-zine king Sal Quartuccio about his achievements with Phase, Hot Stuff, and exceptional art prints. (STL193470) (C: 0-I-I)

THE LIFE AND ART OF DAVE COCKRUM

(W) Glen Cadigan (A/CA) Dave Cockrum

From the letters pages of Silver Age comics to his 2021 induction into the Will Eisner Hall of Fame, the career of Dave Cockrum started at the bottom and then rose to the top of the comic book industry. Beginning with his childhood obsession with comics and continuing through his years in the Navy, The Life and Art of Dave Cockrum follows the rising star from fandom (where he was one of the "Big Three" fanzine artists) to pro-dom, where he helped revive two struggling comic book franchises: the Legion of Super-Heroes and the X-Men. A prolific costume designer and character creator, his redesigns of the Legion and his introduction of X-Men characters Storm, Nightcrawler, Colossus, and Thunderbird (plus his design of Wolverine's alter ego, Logan) laid the foundation for both titles to become best-sellers. His later work on his own property, The Futurians, as well as childhood favorite Blackhawk and T.H.U.N.D.E.R. Agents, plus his five years on Soulsearchers and Company, cemented his position as an industry giant. Featuring artwork from fanzines, unused character designs, and other rare material, this is THE comprehensive biography of the legendary comic book artist, whose influence is still felt on the industry today! Introduction by Alex Ross. (C: 0-I-I)

THE AMERICAN COMIC BOOK CHRONICLES: 1960-1964 HC

(W) John Wells

The American Comic Book Chronicles is an ambitious new series of full-color hardcovers, where TwoMorrows' top authors document every decade of comic book history from the 1940s to today! John Wells covers all the pivotal moments and behind-the-scenes details of comics in the JFK and Beatles era, including: DC Comics' rebirth of Green Lantern and Hawkman and the launch of Justice League of America. Stan Lee and Jack Kirby's transformation of superhero comics with Marvel's Fantastic Four, Spider-Man, Hulk, and other iconic characters! These are just a few of the events chronicled in this exhaustive, full-color hardcover. (STK473898) (AUG121321)

OLD GODS & NEW: A COMPANION TO JACK KIRBY'S FOURTH WORLD TP

(E) John Morrow

Spanning the pages of four different comics starting in 1970 (New Gods, Forever People, Mister Miracle, and Jimmy Olsen), the sprawling "Epic for our times" was cut short mid-stream, leaving fans wondering how Jack would've resolved the confrontation between evil Darkseid of Apokolips and his son Orion of New Genesis. This companion to that "Fourth World" series looks back at Jack Kirby's own words, as well as those of assistants Mark Evanier and Steve Sherman, inker Mike Royer, and publisher Carmine Infantino, to determine how it came about, where it was going, and how Kirby would've ended it before it was prematurely cancelled by DC Comics! It also examines Kirby's use of gods in Thor and other strips prior to the Fourth World, how they influenced his DC epic, and affected later series like The Eternals and Captain Victory. (STL159344) (NOV201583)

CAPTAIN AMERICA: FIRST AVENGER-HERO-ICON HC

(W) Rich Johnson (A) VARIOUS

Captain America explores the phenomenon of one of Marvel Comics's most popular superheroes with the 30 most significant and influential Captain America stories and includes relevant spinoffs and ancillary comic book events. Framed by comic book industry insider and academic Rich Johnson, the story is told using countless comic book images, film stills, and storyboards: how Steve Rogers origin story as Cap began as a WWII hero and where his story took him further into the twentieth century and beyond; costume and character story changes over the decades; the influence of Captain America on all other comic book characters since Cap's inception; and how Captain America is even powerful and relevant in today's comic book (and superhero film) culture. SPIDER-MAN: A HISTORY HC

(W) Rich Johnson

Spider-Man explores the phenomenon of one of Marvel Comics's most popular and relatable nerdy science-kid-turned-superhero with the 30 most significant and influential Spidey stories and including relevant spinoffs and ancillary comic book events. Rich Johnson documents this story with countless comic book images, film stills, and storyboards: how Peter Parker became Spider-Man; costume and character story changes over the decades; the influence of Spidey on all other comic book characters; classic Spidey nemeses like Doc Ock, Green Goblin, and Venom; contemporary stories like the Avengers crossovers, Miles Morales, Spider-Gwen, and the Spider-Verse; and how Spider-Man comics have been so influential on and relevant in today's comic book (and superhero film) culture. The book contains more than 200 illustrations, including covers, interior comic art, and sketch treatments, beginning with his inception in the early 1960s to present-day treatments of the character. JEFF LEMIRE: CONVERSATIONS SC

(A) Jeff Lemire

Many cartoonists deflect from questions about one's history with comics and the influences of other artists, while others indulge the interviewer briefly before attempting to steer the questions in another direction. But Jeff Lemire, creator of Essex County Trilogy, Sweet Tooth, The Nobody, and Trillium, seems to bask in these discussions. Before he was ever a comics professional, he was a fan. In the twenty-nine interviews collected in Jeff Lemire: Conversations, readers see Lemire come to understand the process of collaboration, embrace a variety of genres, using each of them to explore the issues and themes most important to him. And we see a cartoonist and writer growing in confidence, a working professional coming into his own. (STL219505) (C: 0-1-1)

STILL JUST A GEEK: AND ANNOTATED MEMOIR HC

(W) Wil Wheaton

From starring in Stand by Me to playing Wesley Crusher on Star Trek: The Next Generation to playing himself in his second (third?) iconic role of Evil Wil Wheaton in The Big Bang Theory, to becoming a social media supernova, Wil Wheaton has charted a career course unlike anyone else, and has emerged as one of the most popular and well-respected names in science fiction, fantasy, and pop culture. In Still Just a Geek, Wil revisits his 2004 collection of blog posts, Just a Geek, filled with insightful and often laugh-out-loud annotated comments, additional later writings, and all new material written for this publication. The result is an incredibly raw and honest memoir, in which Wil opens up about his life, about falling love, coming to grips with a stagnant career he did not choose, overcoming and healing childhood abuse, and the search for creative and emotional fulfillment as a storyteller. Wil Wheaton's journey is an inspiring and empowering tale, a story of finding one's true purpose that should resonate with fans and aspiring artists alike. (STL219614) (C: 0-1-0)

A messenger's duty is to care for and protect the god they've been assigned to. In order to complete these tasks, such messengers require wings. Shin, however, can't fly. His tiny, useless wings make him the target of ridicule and scorn among the other messengers and have kept him from being able to serve a god... until now. Determined to prove himself as a capable messenger despite his flightlessness, Shin accepts his assignment to a mysterious being on one of the nearby mountains. At first, it seems an easy task to keep his charge safe and happy — especially when the deity in question is just a cute, fluffy ball of fur. But things aren't always what they seem. Recently, messengers flying over the strange god's mountain have been disappearing. Even as suspicion mounts against his deity, Shin just can't bring himself to think that such a gentle god could have a dark side. KOIMONOGATARI: LOVE STORIES VOLUME 1 GN

(W/A/CA) Tagura Toru
When Yuji accidentally overhears his classmate Yamato confessing to another friend that he's gay, his perspective shifts. Seeing Yamato in a new light, Yuji does his best not to let prejudice color his view, but he still finds himself overthinking his classmates' interactions now. He especially notices the way Yamato looks at one particular boy: Yuji's own best friend. Even though he tells himself he shouldn't get involved, Yuji finds he just can't help it; watching Yamato's one-sided love draws him in a way he never expected. As his own friendship with Yamato develops and the two of them grow closer through a mutual study group, Yuji comes to truly care about Yamato as a person, regardless of his sexuality. He only wants Yamato to be happy, and to be able to express his true self. (STL150811) (FEB202170)

LADY MURASAKI'S TALE OF GENJI: THE MANGA EDITION GN

(W) Sean Michael Wilson
(A) Inko Ai Takita
Tale of Genji tells the story of Prince Genji, the passionate heir to the Chrysanthemum Throne. Handsome, romantic, and talented in the art of seduction, Prince Genji skillfully navigates the court and all its intrigues—always in search of love and often finding it. His story is the oldest and most famous tale of romance in the annals of Japanese literature and, as a representation of passion and romance, remains beyond compare. Lady Murasaki Shikibu wrote this story some 500 years before Shakespeare put pen to paper. It is acknowledged to be the world's very first novel, and English-speaking readers can now experience the story in manga style for the first time. (STL219611)

APOLLO'S SONG OMNIBUS EDITION GN

(W/A) Osamu Tezuka

Apollo's Song follows the tragic journey of Shogo, a young man whose abusive childhood has instilled in him a loathing for love so profound he finds himself compelled to acts of violence when he is witness to any act of intimacy or affection whether by human or beast. His hate is such that the gods intervene, cursing Shogo to experience love throughout the ages ultimately to have it ripped from his heart every time. From the Nazi atrocities of World War II to a dystopian future of human cloning, Shogo loses his heart, in so doing, healing the psychological scars of his childhood hatred. Master storyteller Osamu Tezuka's Apollo's Song is a lyrical tour-de-force on the human spirit, the destruction of hate, and the triumph of love. (STL219870) (C: 0-1-1) SC, 384pgs, B&W.....$24.95

BLACKGUARD VOLUME 2 GN

(W/A) Ryoh Hanada

A new dark fantasy from the creator of Devils' Line. The world is suddenly overrun by monsters called "shojo," and anyone who is bit by one is infected with a mysterious virus that turns them into the same being. To defeat the shojo, humans live in "aerial cities" and formed units called "guards." Nanao Minami, also known as the Blackguard, fights but without regard for his own life. What is his motivation and why does he want to die so readily? (STL219750) (C: 0-1-1) SC, 200pgs, B&W.....$12.95

Fantastic Four

M-19 ■ Diamond Select Toys

DIAMOND SELECT TOYS CELEBRATES TWENTY YEARS WITH THE WORLD'S GREATEST MINIMATES — THE FANTASTIC FOUR

Developed by Art Asylum, the first Minimates figures were released in 2002. The 2-inch tall blocky figures of characters from comic books, film, television, music, and more have been popular with collectors ever since. This summer, Diamond Select Toys celebrates the twentieth-anniversary of Minimates with a special release: the Marvel Minimates: The Fantastic Four Box Set!

The Fantastic Four themselves just celebrated their 60th-anniversary in 2021, and this Minimates box set comes not just with the Fantastic Four — Reed Richards (Mr. Fantastic), Sue Storm (Invisible Woman), Johnny Storm (the Human Torch), and Ben Grimm (The Thing) — but also the Silver Surfer with an all-black finish, long-time foe Victor von Doom as the Infamous Iron Man, and a miniature H.E.R.B.I.E. the robot! Packaged in a special window box with art by designer Barry Bradfield, Diamond Select Toys' Marvel Minimates: The Fantastic Four Box Set surely merits the title of the World's Greatest Minimates!

THE JUSTICE LEAGUE RETURNS WITH TWO VINYL STATUES FROM IRON STUDIOS

One of the most anticipated superhero films of 2021, Zack Snyder's Justice League, debuted on HBO Max in the spring and gave audiences Snyder's original vision of the film. Iron Studios celebrates the film with two Justice League MiniCo Vinyl Statues, one of the Knightmare Batman from the post-apocalyptic future where Darkseid has conquered Earth, and the Black Suit Superman from his resurrection. These statues will look fantastic in your DC Comics collection!

HIYA TOYS' JUDGE DREDD FIGURES ENFORCE THE LAW IN MEGA-CITY ONE

Straight from the pages of Rebellion's long-running anthology 2000 AD, Judge Dredd and his long-time foe Judge Death dispense law and death with two new PREVIEWS Exclusive figures!

The Judge Dredd 1/18-Scale Exquisite Mini Figures of Mega-City One future lawman Judge Dredd and the undead monster Judge Death, for whom life itself is the greatest crime, are ready to judge your action figure collection! Dredd is based on the artwork of Dredd co-creator Carlos Ezquerra, and Death features a design inspired by the work of Judge Death co-creator Brian Bolland. These figures also come with accessories, just as Dredd's famous baton and badge.

Available exclusively through PREVIEWS at your local comic shop, Hiya Toys' Judge Dredd 1/18-Scale Exquisite Mini Figures will judge you if you fail to add them to your collection!

ASSEMBLE THE AVENGERS WITH BEAST KINGDOM'S AVENGERS ENDGAME D-STAGE STATUES

Phase 3 of the Marvel Cinematic Universe came to its conclusion in the blockbuster Avengers Endgame as the Avengers, having failed to stop Thanos from destroying half the universe, embark on a dangerous plan to defeat Thanos and restore the universe. Beast Kingdom's Avengers Endgame D-Stage Statues brings fans of the films and the characters. The Iron Man Mk. 85 Statue and the Thor statue depict the heroes in the final battle against Thanos — Tony Stark ready to use the Infinity Stones against the Titan, Thor once again empowered with lightning. Display them separately or together to remember this iconic cinematic moment!

SUPER7'S UNIVERSAL MONSTERS FIGURES BRING YOU CINEMA'S ICONIC HORROR LEGENDS

Universal Studios' monster movies of the 1930s, 1940s, and 1950s have left an indelible mark in the public consciousness as the iconic and definitive interpretations of literature's greatest horrors such as Frankenstein's monster, the Mummy, and the Wolfman. Along with the Atomic Age original horror, the Creature from the Black Lagoon, these creatures are collectively known as the Universal Monsters, and Super7 brings fans of these films vintage-styled 3 3/4" tall action figures of these characters with the Universal Monsters Wave 5 ReAction Figures. Featuring blister card packaging, these are the Universal Monster action figures you wanted as a kid!

SPOTLIGHT ON

HELLWITCH 14-INCH STATUE

From Quarantine Studio. The infamous sorceress who would become Hellwitch began as a nameless pit slave, the lowest caste in her Hive. Through sheer determination, Hellwitch did the impossible and rose through the ranks of her caste system to challenge the Hive's tyrannical queen. Overcoming that challenge was the first step in her evolution from lowly slave to one of the most powerful witches in Hell! Based on artwork by Mike Krome, Hellwitch crouches atop a pile of ash and bone clutching the heart of her last victim. Made from polystone and measuring 14 1/2" to the tip of her horns, she displays her impressive 17 1/2" wingspan. From her thigh high boots and armored gauntlets to that come hither smile that lets you know she is up to no good, every detail is fully rendered for a statue you won't want to miss! (STL217214) Item has been previously solicited in New to Order. Scheduled to ship in September 2022. (1448) (C: 1-1-2) NOTE: Available only in US, Canada, and US territories.

MINIONS: SKULL 8-INCH ART FIGURE

From Kidrobot. The adorably unintelligent Minions are back for another adventure in 2022 with Minions: The Rise of Gru! Kidrobot has partnered with those wacky yellow creatures to bring to life this new 8" Minion Anatomy Art Figure. Gaze through the clear outer shell to look inside a typical Minion and discover their secrets.

Some say they have existed since the beginning of time... Some say they like bananas. Consisting of a sculpted interior resting in a clear outer shell, this 8" Minion Art Figure shows that we're all the same underneath our skin. Except for the one big eye. That's pretty different. (STL218648) Item has been previously solicited in New to Order. Scheduled to ship in August 2022. (6338/KR16804) (C: 1-1-2) NOTE: Available only in US and Canada.

STAR WARS: THE BAD BATCH: HUNTER ARTFX STATUE

From Kotobukiya. From the popular animated series streaming on Disney+, Star Wars: The Bad Batch, Kotobukiya presents a series of 1/7-scale model kits! Hunter, their leader, was engineered with heightened senses, making him an expert tracker. Hunter, with his shaggy hair and skull tattoo, stands out among the members. Details like the skull emblem, and the sheath from this vibro-knife on his left arm are carefully sculpted in 1/7-scale. You can display this piece with the knife from ARTFX Star Wars Wrecker in his left hand (knife not included in this product). An interchangeable head part without the helmet is also included. The base is of a hexagon shape design that will be standard to all future characters in this series so fans can enjoy lining them up together on display. (STL214179) Item has been previously solicited in New to Order. Scheduled to ship in May 2022. (4898/SW185) (C: 1-1-2) NOTE: Same as Deny 233, but with Mexico allowed.
